

Contents

Acknowledgments — IX

List of Tables — XV

Abbreviations — XVII

Location of the Benedictine Estates of Pernambuco — XIX

Introduction — 1

A few words about sources — 6

Pernambuco: between sugar and slavery — 7

1 Between the “Escape from the World” and the World of Slavery — 13

A brief history of the Benedictines — 13

Slavery and the Rule — 22

Slavery in numbers — 28

“Idleness is the enemy of the soul” — 34

2 Humility, Obedience and Slavery — 42

“That the Brethren Be Obedient to One Another” — 43

Paternalism, Moralization and Freedom — 52

The limits of benevolence — 65

Those who wish “to be a free agent” — 72

The great Benedictine family — 78

Tramps and cheaters — 88

3 Slave-owning slaves — 103

“One slave for another” — 105

Family business — 115

Rufina: a “humble servant” — 136

4 The Abolitionist Monks — 153

“The holy laws of freedom” — 156

Under “the hard yoke of slavery” — 163

Sons, not slaves — 178

Land, work and freedom — 184

XIV — Contents

Sources and Bibliography — 189

Glossary — 205

Index — 207