

Contents

1 Introduction 1

1.1 Doing Care Inside: And Doing Economy Outside? 4

1.2 Leading Categories 6

1.3 What Comes Together..... 8

1.4 Ecosocial Orientation 11

1.5 The Structure of the Treatise..... 14

References 17

2 Extensions of Care 19

2.1 Caring Action 24

2.2 Care Work and Its Distribution 31

2.3 On the Economics of Caring..... 33

References 37

3 The Beginning Is Socially and Economically the Provision of Subsistence 39

3.1 Subsistence in Place and Time 45

3.2 Doing Economy in and Around Business Life 48

3.3 Economy in Reflection of Caring..... 54

References 57

4 Economy “Started at Home”, Politically and Globally Considered .. 59

4.1 The Exodus of the Economy Out of the Domestic Space..... 65

4.2 Doing Economy Becomes Business and Goes to Market..... 68

4.3 Households in a Personal, Community and Global Context..... 72

4.4 Doing Care and Doing Economy in the Interest..... 76

References 81

IX

5	The Caring and Economic State	85
5.1	The State as Host.	86
5.2	Caring for Welfare.	91
5.3	Nurturing Economic Ecosystems	93
	References	96
6	Business and the Caring of Companies	97
6.1	The Frame of Reference of Transactions in the Economic Space . .	99
6.2	Economic Units in Conjunction with Each Other.	104
6.3	Ventures Between Home and State.	106
	References	109
7	Care Supply in Its Structures and Processes	111
7.1	On the Development of Social Care	114
7.2	A Different Division of Labour.	116
7.3	Supply Is Not Equal to Welfare.	119
	References	123
8	Solidarity in Care and Social Economy	125
8.1	A Recourse into the History of Social and Solidarity-Based Economy	129
8.2	What to Do: The Horizon of Challenges.	132
8.3	What to Care About: Positions of Social Economy Theory	136
	References	139
9	Prosperous Development: Well-Being Under Ecological Guidelines . .	143
9.1	For the Common Good	146
9.2	The Commune Reason	149
9.3	In the End, Global Livelihoods are Provided for	152
	References	156
	Index	159