

Table of contents

1.	Foreword	11
2.	Introduction and beginning of the cooperation	13
3.	Summer Schools (2012-2016)
3.1	Realization and contents	17
3.2	Insights and variations of the summer school	33
3.3	Social and cultural experiences	35
4.	Structural Basics, Transformations and Cooperation Partners
4.1	University of Rwanda (UR)	39
4.2	Rwanda National Police (RNP)
4.2.1	The legal framework and system of death investigation in Rwanda	41
4.2.2	Forensic science capabilities in Rwanda	43
4.3	Commission for the Fight against Genocide	44
4.4	Hamburg State Office of Criminal Investigation	51
5.	Impact of Summer Schools
5.1	Upgrade training courses in Hamburg	53
5.2	School of Forensic Science – Bachelor's Degree Program	56
5.3	Teaching and workshops
5.3.1	Autopsy workshop	58
5.3.2	Toxicology workshop	69
5.3.3	Anthropology workshop	73
5.3.4	Trauma and PTSD workshop	77
5.3.5	DNA workshop	79
5.3.6	Child abuse workshop	81

6.	Scientific Work
6.1	Forensic anthropological examination and DNA analysis in the identification of human remains in Rwanda	85
6.2	Indoor air pollution as a risk factor for fatal anthracosis and COPD in sub-Saharan Africa – The case of an unidentified Rwandan male of about 50 years	99
6.3	The burden of stroke in young black population and the role of post mortem evaluation in increasing awareness and prevention	109
6.4	The contribution of legal medicine to the legal security of a state, and the example of the medico-legal cooperation between the University Medical Center Hamburg-Eppendorf, Germany, and Rwanda (since 2005)	117
6.5	Rape in the context of warlike conflicts, using the example of the former Yugoslavia and Rwanda	125
6.6	Trends and patterns of suspected infanticide cases autopsied at the Kacyiru Hospital, Rwanda – a report of two cases	133
6.7	Death due to pneumonia in young adults – A post-mortem experience from the department of legal medicine, Kacyiru Hospital, Kigali-Rwanda	141
6.8	Forensische Päopathologie: Erfolgreiche Therapie der posttraumatischen Skoliose bei einem Mädchen aus Rwanda. (Successful management of a post-traumatic scoliosis in a Rwandan girl)	147
6.9	Forensische Päopathologie – Ungewollte Schwangerschaft, Totgeburt: Spezielle rechtmedizinische Erfahrungen in Ruanda. (Unwanted pregnancy, stillbirth: Special medico-legal experiences in Rwanda)	149
6.10	Wissenschaftliche und klinische Kooperationen sowie Weiterbildungsinitiativen Hamburger Mediziner in Ruanda. (Scientific and clinical cooperation as well as further training initiatives by Hamburg-based medical specialists in Rwanda)	151

7.	Future cooperation and prospects	157
8.	Annex
8.1	A holistic approach towards a safer society – capacity building in the fields of legal medicine and psychotrauma tology in Rwanda	161
8.2	Addresses of cooperation partners	183
8.3	Acknowledgements	185