

CONTENTS

Space Travel Starts on Earth Paul Meuser	13
An Introduction to the History of Launch Sites Brian Harvey	21
1 THE AMERICAS
Kodiak, United States Alaska's Island Spaceport	37
Vandenberg, United States Busy West Coast Military Base	43
Cape Canaveral, United States The World's Best-Known Launch Centre	53
Wallops Island, United States Atlantic Shoreside Site	67
Kourou, French Guiana Europe's Launch Site in the South American Jungle	73
Alcântara, Brazil Brazil's Equatorial Launch Site	83
2 BALTO-MEDITERRANEAN
Hammaguir, Algeria France's Desert Site in North Africa	91
Peenemünde, Germany Baltic Home of the Modern Rocket	103
Palmachim, Israel Israel's Beachside Mediterranean Launch Site	111
3 EURASIA
Plesetsk, Russia Busiest Cosmodrome in the World	119
Kasputin Yar, Russia Russia's Original Cosmodrome	129
Semnan, Iran Iran's Imam Khomeini Desert Launch Site	133
Baikonur, Kazakhstan Whence Sputnik and Gagarin left the Earth Behind	139

4 INDO-AFRICAN

San Marco, Kenya Pioneering Offshore Launch Platform	159
Thumba, India Cradle of India's Space Programme	165
Kulasekarapattinam, India India's New Launch Site	169
Sriharikota, India India's Gateway to Space	173

5 ASIA-PACIFIC

Jiuquan, China China's Premier Launch Site	187
Xichang, China In the Misty Mountains	193
Wenchang, China China's Destination Moon Launch Site	201
Taiyuan, China The Coal Town Site	209
Sohae, Democratic People's Republic of Korea DPRK's Site Echoes Politics of Korean Peninsular	213
Naro, Republic of Korea Korea's Island Launch Site	221
Vostochny, Russia New Model Cosmodrome in Russian Far East	227
Tanegashima, Japan Island Launch Site at Japan's Southern Tip	235
Uchinoura, Japan Kagoshima: Japan's First Launch Site	243
Woomera, Australia Desert Launch Site in the Land Down Under	249
Mahia, New Zealand New, Busy New Zealand Model Commercial Spaceport	261
Sea Launch, Russia Mobile Maritime Launch Platform	265
Index	270
Biographies	271