

111 Places

- 1__ Abbeydale Industrial Hamlet
Small-scale industry from muscle and sweat | 10
- 2__ Abbeydale Miniature Railway
Where delightful journeying never takes you far | 12
- 3__ Alfred Denny Museum
The fluorescent glow of Chaetopterus variopedatus | 14
- 4__ Armandos Scooters
Vintage Lambrettas and Vespas posing like starlets | 16
- 5__ The Arctic Monkeys Room
Where the school kids from High Green practised | 18
- 6__ The Bear Pit
Where Victorian roisterers threw buns | 20
- 7__ Birdhouse Tea Company
The musical art of tea blending in Sidney Street | 22
- 8__ Bishop's House
The solid built yeoman's pad | 24
- 9__ Blue Moon Cafe
Where all the clocks in the world agree | 26
- 10__ Bobby's Lock-Up
Surveillance at a slower pace | 28
- 11__ Boot's Folly
A lonely tower in a wind-scoured field | 30
- 12__ Bragazzi's
Florentine deli with tractor stools | 32
- 13__ The Buffer Girls
At the filthy end of the metalworking process | 34
- 14__ The Cementation Furnace
At the birth of global steel-making | 36
- 15__ The Central Library
Sheffield's street-corner, Art Deco fanfare | 38
- 16__ Chantrey's Needle
The greatest portrait sculptor of his age | 40
- 17__ Cresswell Crags
It was 27,000 years ago today... | 42
- 18__ Cubana
Bringing over those Latino dance rhythms | 44

19 The Curzon Cinema
Complete with tour of the bank vaults | 46

20 The Cutlers' Hall
Where masters of industry strutted their stuff | 48

21 The Cutting Edge
A sculptural greeting in steel and water | 50

22 Dale Dyke Dam
The near hidden source of great tragedy | 52

23 The David Mellor Factory
Sitting pretty inside a gasometer's footprint | 54

24 Derek Dooley's Way
The bobby-dazzler with a foot in both camps | 56

25 Derwent Bridge
Rescued from drowning stone by stone | 58

26 The Dore Stone
Where England became a political entity | 60

27 Ecclesall Woods
Neolithic rock art in ancient woodlands | 62

28 Edward Carpenter
Gay activist and pioneering sandal-maker | 64

29 Emergency Services Museum
Inside the notorious murderer's dank cell | 66

30 Ernest Wright and Sons
Putter-togetherers for five generations | 68

31 Forge Bakehouse
Conjuring the Peaks from a storm of flour | 70

32 The Famous Sheffield Shop
The gleam and the glint of local metalware | 72

33 Frog Walk
The gennel overlooking the ancient snuff mill | 74

34 The Full Monty
Hot Stuff kicking up a storm | 76

35 The General Cemetery
Locals out of love with the catacombs | 78

36 The Golden Post Box
Honouring Jessica, history's greatest heptathlete | 80

37 Granelli's
Sweets for the sucking since 1874 | 82

38 The Graves Gallery
Jane Austen's great-uncle in a candyfloss wig | 84

39 Heeley City Farm
The child-friendliest of inner-city farms | 86

40 Helter-Skelter
A wild, helpless onrush, down and through... | 88

41 Henderson's Relish
The black stuff that defines the city | 90

42 Jameson's Tea Rooms
An entire eighth of a cake to die for | 92

43 Jarvis' Hard Night
Mouthing off in public places | 94

44 Jenkin Road
The steepest hill climb of the Tour de France | 96

45 Kelham Island
Where old grit meets new shine | 98

46 The Kelham Island Tavern
Pleasingly adrift on a foaming head of cask ale | 100

47 The Lantern Theatre
A gift to a Soho-hungry daughter? | 102

48 Laundry
Hair-styling to the odour of warm towels | 104

49 The Leadmill
Musical excess on the beery dance floor | 106

50 Legends of the Lane Museum
Troops watch the Blades thrash Chelsea | 108

51 The Leopold Hotel
Joe Cocker once sang his heart out | 110

52 Manor Lodge
Where Mary, Queen of Scots sewed and schemed | 112

53 Marmadukes
Good food spiced with Sheffield wit | 114

54 Museum of Gardening Tools
Meersbrook Park's Walled Garden Mess Room | 116

55 Music in the Round
Flung headlong into music-making | 118

56 The National Fairground Archive
The day Buffalo Bill thundered through Sheffield | 120

57 Now Then
The no-nonsense of street art | 122

58 The Old Queen's Head
Sheffield's most venerable, saggy hostelry | 124

59 Our Cow Molly
Richest of ice creams from a herd of Friesians | 126

60 Owlerton Stadium
Hurtling greyhounds and daredevil riders | 128

61 Paradise Square
Where the agitators once gathered | 130

62 Park Hill
Reviving the utopian dream of collective living | 132

63 Parkwood Springs
Sheffield flung out cinematically | 134

64 The Peace Gardens
Picasso's doves squat on a chimney pot | 136

65 Percy Riley Corner
Where the struggle of the miners is remembered | 138

66 Portland Works
All the little mesters under one roof | 140

67 Queen Cartimandua
Deal-maker with the Romans | 142

68 Record Collector
Vintage vinyl never stops revolving | 144

69 Redmires Training Camp
Where local boys prepared for the Somme | 146

70 Ringinglow Roundhouse
Practising the art of snooping in every direction | 148

71 The Rivelin Valley Trail
The beautiful afterlife of industry | 150

72 The River Don Engine
The muscular force of steam power | 152

73 Royal Exchange Buildings
Just a whiff of Amsterdam beside the River Don | 154

74 Royal Victoria Station Hotel
Wilde, Pavlova and a chorus line of flappers | 156

75 The Ruskin Collection
Handing beauty on to the working man | 158

76 Sandgate
The oldest football ground in continuous use | 160

77 Scaling the Norman Fort
Keeping the marauders at bay | 162

78 Sewer Gas Destructor Lamp
Which flares up brightest at Christmas | 164

79 Sharow Vale Road
A most distinctively local shopping street | 166

80 The Sheffield Assay Office
Where precious stuff gets bicycled in | 168

81 Sheffield City Hall
Where John Lennon might have met Ziggy Stardust | 170

82 The Sheffield Simplex
Bespoke luxury fit for the Romanovs | 172

83 The Sheffield Tap
Idling luxuriosness beside Platform 1 | 174

84 The Sheffield Year Knife
A bravura wonder in two thousand blades | 176

85 Shepherd Wheel
Walking from city park to open countryside | 178

86 The Showroom
The most versatile of indie cinemas | 180

87 Skye Edge
The pigeon fanciers' paradise | 182

88 Stanage Edge
The climbers grip on for dear life | 184

89 Stanage Pole
An ancient waymarker in the wilderness | 186

90 Stanley Cook's House
A poet's window on a strangely familiar world | 188

91 St Marie's Cathedral
Pugin's exquisite gift to Sheffield | 190

92 St Paul's, Parson Cross
By the architect of Coventry Cathedral | 192

93 Strip the Willow
Everything comes in for something | 194

94 Tamper: Sellers Wheel
A Kiwi coffee shop wings in from the Pacific | 196

95 The Thryft House Yew Tree
Older than Magna Carta | 198

96 Tinsley Canal Walk
Nature's quietly determined fightback | 200

97 Two Steps to Heaven
The gentle art of eating fish and chips | 202

98 Turner Museum of Glass
Cinderella locked in a Sheffield cabinet | 204

99 Upper Chapel Forecourt
Quietly reflecting upon popular dissent | 206

100 Upper Wincobank Chapel
A modest slice of New England piety | 208

101 Vulcan
Sheffield's forge-master general | 210

102 Walking Man
How a gait can define a character | 212

103 The Wantley Dragon
The mythical creature with fourteen eyes | 214

104 Weston Park Weather Station
Utterly dependable, rain, sleet or shine | 216

105 The Wicker Arches
The honey glow of stone from Wharncliffe Crags | 218

106 Wincobank Hill
The cleansing of ancient ground | 220

107 The Winter Garden
Tropical vegetation in the inner city | 222

108 Wisewood Cemetery
The death of a Leppard | 224

109 Wortley Hall
Welcome to the workers' stately home | 226

110 Wyming Brook
Sheffield's miniature Alpine interlude | 228

111 The Zion Graveyard
Mary Anne Rawson's Resting Place | 230