

Contents

List of acronyms — VII

List of figures and tables — XI

José de Souza Andrade – Photojournalist — XIII

Introduction — 1

I Race, colour and racism in Latin American history and social sciences — 12

Race and slavery in the colony — 12

Race in the new states/nations of Latin America — 20

Racial democracy: ideology and the invisibility of racism — 33

II Historical predecessors of Black protagonism — 50

Black protagonism in the Americas since the end of the 19th century — 50

Winds of Negritude — 52

Beyond Negritude: the work of Frantz Fanon — 54

Rastafarianism — 55

The Afroamerica Journal. A bold – but fleeting – effort — 56

The Dakar Colloquium — 58

“Los negros se toman la palabra”. The Congresses of the Black Culture of the Americas — 60

The creolité (creolización) of Eduard Glissant — 62

The impact of Paul Gilroy and his “Black Atlantic” — 63

What the Black cause of the 1970s bequeathed to the Afro-descendant movement of the “multicultural turn” — 64

III Multiculturalism and new ethno-racial identities in Latin America — 66

The advent of multiculturalism and its interpretations — 66

Multiculturalism and the emergence of new identities — 75

The development of policies concerning Afro-descendants in Latin America in the international sphere — 86

International academic projects on Latin American Afro-descendants — 90

IV The construction of “race” as a foundational category of rights and public policies — 96

The identification of Afro-descendants in the Americas: the debate on racial classification — 96

Multiculturalist policies, identity politics, and/or racial equality? — 107

The Latin American multicultural turn, new constitution and reclaiming the debate on colour/race in Brazil — 116

Affirmative Action in Brazil and the identification of race/colour — 141

Affirmative Action and the political far-right in Brazil — 163

The Black movement in the contemporary context — 170

V Multiculturalism and the new landscapes:

Final thoughts — 178

References — 186