

CONTENTS

Introduction	9
On the rupture of a myth
Evaluation	33
Charles Sheeler's depictions of industry as a subject of research
 PART I
Apotheosis	47
Charles Sheeler's seminal commission
Transformation	89
Being obsessed with efficiency
Reappraisal	111
Sheeler's painted industrial landscapes
Surpass	159
The machine as a notion of monstrosity
 PART II
Divergence	177
The representation of industrial environments among contemporary artists
Pronounced	197
The human figure in industrial works of fellow Precisionists. George Ault and Niles Spencer
Synopsis and Prospect	223
The presence of alienation and latency in Precisionism
Acknowledgements	231
Bibliography	235
Credits	253
Index	257