

7	Why this Manifesto?
10	Neighbourhood thesis The street as a place for chance encounters. Changing streets to change societies.
28	Mobility thesis The use of urban space as a car park is a fundamental error of judgement. Real freedom goes well beyond our private cars. It's time to free ourselves of them!
48	Economy thesis The free street: lifeline for progress. For more reliable supplies and new spaces for creativity and innovation.
70	Health thesis The free street: a charm offensive. Here, everyone can feel safe, stay healthy and move about freely.
92	Climate thesis The free street: protecting our lives and those of future generations. Helping communities cope with extreme weather conditions.
110	Political thesis It takes political will to free the streets. Try new things, keep what works and embrace conflicts.
132	Participation thesis It takes pioneers to free the streets. We can all play our part to make the change.
150	Bibliography
158	Imprint