

Contents

Acknowledgments — VII

Frederik Herman, Sjaak Braster and María del Mar del Pozo Andrés
Towards A Public History of Education: A Manifesto — 1

Musealization

Marc Depaepe

Like a Voice in the Wilderness? Striving for a Responsible Handling of the Educational Heritage — 39

Lieselot De Wilde, Bruno Vanobbergen and Sarah Van Bouchaute
Life after the Apology: Making the Unspeakable Visible — 59

Iveta Kestere and Arnis Strazdins

Between Nostalgia and Trauma: Representation of Soviet Childhood in the Museums of Latvia — 77

Antonio Viñao Frago

Public History between the Scylla of Academic History and the Charybdis of History as a Show: A Personal and Institutional Experience — 91

María del Mar del Pozo Andrés

Public Voices and Teachers' Identities: Exploring the Visitors' Book of a School Memory Exhibition — 109

Helena Ribeiro de Castro

Flowers on a Grave: Memories of a Hidden, but Not Forgotten, School (Hi)story — 133

Exhibiting

Jeroen J.H. Dekker

Story Telling through Fine Art: Public Histories of Childhood and Education in Exhibitions in the Netherlands and Belgium C. 1980 – C. 2020 — 157

Karin Priem and Ian Grosvenor

Future Pasts: Web Archives and Public History as Challenges for Historians of Education in Times of COVID-19 — 177

Joyce Goodman

Conserving the Past, Learning from the Past: Art, Science and London's National Gallery — 197

Ian Grosvenor and Siân Roberts

Art, Anti-fascism, and the Evolution of a "Propaganda of the Imagination": The Artists International Association 1933–1945 — 217

Christine Mayer

Exhibiting the Past: Women in Art and Design in the Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Centuries — 239

Inés Dussel

Picturing School Architecture: Monumentalization and Modernist Angles in the Photographs of School Spaces, 1880–1920 — 263

Storytelling

Nelleke Bakker

Memories of Harm in Institutions of Care: The Dutch Historiography of Institutional Child Abuse from a Comparative Perspective — 289

Sjaak Braster

Exhibiting Teachers' Hands: Storytelling Based on a Private Collection of Engravings — 309

Catherine Burke

Rocking Horses as Peripheral Objects in Pedagogies of Childhood:
An Imagined Exhibition — 333

Angelo Van Gorp and Frederik Herman

On the Trail of the Toucan: A Travelogue about A Peregrination in Educational History — 357

Wayne J. Urban

Reflections of a Textbook Writer — 381

Harry Smaller

Making Teacher Union History “Public”: The British Columbia (Canada)
Teachers’ Union, and Its “Online Museum” — 399

Lucía Martínez Moctezuma

The Pedagogical Press and the Public Debate about Schooling — 417

Note on the Editors — 441

List of Contributors — 443