

Contents

List of Figures	xiii
List of Table	xv
Acknowledgments	xvii
Preface	xix
1. Campaigning on a Platform of Administrative Deconstruction	1
Deconstruction During the 2016 Campaign	3
Draining the Swamp or Controlling the Beast?	3
Meaning of Drain the Swamp	4
Can the Beast Be Controlled?	6
Presidential Control Model	7
Why This Route Instead of More Standard Democratic Processes?	8
A Democratic Threat?	9
2. Deregulating the Administrative State	17
Rolling Back Administrative Regulation	20
Regulatory Delay and Nonenforcement	23
The Congressional Review Act	24
The Directive Power: Trump's Deregulatory Executive Orders	25

	Assessing the Impact of the Trump Administration's Deregulatory Agenda	33
	The Stock and Flow of Regulations	34
	Blocked by the Courts	39
	Beyond Deregulation	45
3.	Managing and Staffing in the Trump Administration	53
	Principal-Agent Theory	54
	Appointing Anathemas	58
	Agency Morale	59
	The Revolving Door: A New Managerial Style?	62
	Gaining Ground?	64
4.	Anti-Administrativism Through the Courts	69
	Ending Judicial Deference	72
	What Are the Chevron and Auer Deference Doctrines?	72
	Recent Calls to End Judicial Deference	76
	Congressional Support for the End of Judicial Deference	80
	Judicial Appointments and Anti-Administrativism	82
	Would Abandonment of Chevron Deference Destroy the Administrative State?	87
	Unintended Consequences?	90
	Administrative Law Judges and Immigration: An Illustrative Example	92
	The Long-Term Impact on Constitutional Legitimacy of the Court and for the Rule of Law?	95
5.	Delegitimizing the Administrative State	105
	The "Deep State" versus the "Steady State"	107
	National Intelligence and Foreign Affairs	111
	"I Know Better than the Generals"	113
	Law Enforcement	115
	Silencing the Scientists	117
	Undermining Bureaucracy in the Context of Theory	122
6.	The Plan for Reorganizing and Reforming Government	129
	Presidential Reorganization Authority	131

	Trump and Executive Reorganization	137
	The White House Office of American Innovation (OAI)	138
	Executive Order 13781 and OMB-Led Reorganization	139
	Budgetary Power: Downsizing, Defunding, and Reorganizing	142
	Efficiency versus Loyalty in the Reorganization of Government	144
	Reorganizing without Expertise	145
7.	Constitution and Crisis: Barriers to Presidential Control	153
	The Enduring Power of the Administrative State	155
	The Administrative State Strikes Back?	156
	The COVID-19 Crisis and the Hollowed-Out State	159
	The Enduring Power of Federalism	166
	The Trump Administration's Approach to Federalism	168
	Federalism and COVID-19 Crisis: Trump versus the Governors	172
	Federalism and the 2020 Protests	177
	Constitution and Crisis: Trump's Last Chance or Just the Beginning?	180
8.	The Future of Public Administration Post-Trump	195
	Perspectives on Trump's Impact on the Administrative State	196
	Politics-as-Usual and Mid-Range Interpretations	198
	Mid-Range to Alarmist Interpretations	205
	Trump as an Existential Threat	208
	The Post-Acquittal President: An Even Greater Threat?	210
	The Administrative State Post-Trump?	215
9.	An Unfinished Story	237
10.	Wrapping Up the Trump Presidency	243
	The Failed Pandemic Response as Evidence of the Hollowing Out of the Administrative State	245
	American Carnage Realized	249
	The "Big Lie" and the January 6th Attack on the Capital	251
	The Institutional Impact of Deconstruction: Declining Trust in Institutions	254

11.	The Biden Administration: The Renewal of Administrative Competence and Authority?	265
	Appointments and Staffing	267
	Biden's Regulatory Agenda: Undoing and Reversing Trump	270
	The Congressional Review Act	270
	The Directive Power: Biden's Executive Orders	271
	Reversing Regulatory Deconstruction	275
	Reorganizing and Reinventing Government	278
	Biden and the Courts	279
	Crises and the Biden Administration	281
12.	What Is at Stake for the Administrative State?	297
	Will Congress Reclaim Some of Its Power?	305
	Directing the Whirlwind Again: The End Goal of Chaos	307
	Index	313