

5	Preface
7	Introduction – The Acquisition of Tabgha
8	PART I: HISTORICAL SITES
9	Stone Age finds
11	Kinneret – a Canaanite city of the Bronze Age
13	The Kinneret of the Early Iron Age
15	The Israelite Fortress City of Kinneret
17	Gennesaret and the world of fishermen at the time of Jesus
19	Heptapegon – The Early Christian Sanctuary of the Multiplication
21	Horvat Kur and its synagogue
23	Khirbat al-Minya – an early Islamic palace
25	A table, a tower and a sugar cane factory of the Crusader era
27	Khan al-Minya – a caravan station of the Mamluk and Ottoman periods
29	The mills of et-Tabgha
31	The Bedouins at the Sea of Galilee
32	PART II: THE “GERMAN TABGHA”
33	The beginnings under Rev. Zephyrin Biever
35	Excursus: The DVHL schools in the Galilee
37	Tabgha under the Lazarists – Until the 1 st World War
39	The First World War
41	Excursus: Fr Ernst Schmitz in Tabgha
43	Between the Wars
44	Excursus: The “guest books” of the hospice
47	World War II and the Benedictines in Tabgha
51	The hospice as Israeli Youth Hostel Karei Deshe
53	The Sapir Pumping Station at Tel Kinrot
54	The new Church of the Multiplication
57	The Beit Noah meeting place
59	The return and reopening of the Pilgerhaus
61	The new monastery