

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments.....	VII
Frequently Cited Works	XI
 Introduction	 1
A. Jüngel on truth.....	1
B. Theology and contemporary historical consciousness	5
C. Jüngel's historical account of truth	7
D. Plan of the work	13
 Chapter 1: Sprachereignisse among the Hermeneutical Theologians ..	 15
A. Bultmann on revelation, truth, and history	18
B. The critique of Bultmann and the development of the Sprachereignis concept	24
C. Toward History.....	35
 Chapter 2: From Adaequatio to Ereignis	 39
A. The Adaequatio Account of Truth	39
B. Metaphorical Truth	43
C. Language of address	47
D. Truth as interruption	55
E. Conclusion.....	61
 Chapter 3: "A Time Across All Times"	 64
A. Jüngel on divine revelation	64
B. Jüngel on theology	72

Chapter 4: “The Word is the Actual Core of Historical Reality”	82
A. Jüngel on the divine attributes	82
B. Jüngel on truth as a divine attribute	86
C. The relationship of immanent and economic truth	92
D. God as Sprachereignis	98
E. Coda: God and non-theological truths	103
 Chapter 5: Unterwegs zur Sache	 104
A. On truth and objectification	104
B. The divine being, foreknowledge, and truth	113
 Bibliography	 117
 Index of Subjects and Names	 123