

| | | |
|-----------------------------|---|------------|
| 1 | Stages of an Arduous but Happy Life | 1 |
| 2 | Encounter with Two Controversial Thinkers: Max Weber and Martin Heidegger | 21 |
| 3 | What Is the Meaning of Being Human? | 29 |
| 4 | Liberal Ethos of Humanity, Science and Education | 39 |
| 5 | Transcendence and the Metaphysics of Ciphers Instead of the Belief in Revelation of a Personal God | 59 |
| 6 | Philosophical Faith in Reason as an Alternative to Religious Faith in Revelation | 69 |
| 7 | On the Meaning of History and the Axial Age in World History | 79 |
| 8 | World History of Philosophy and Vision of a “World Philosophy” | 85 |
| 9 | Provocative Statements on German Policy of His Time | 91 |
| 10 | Political Philosopher or Merely Political Writer? | 107 |
| 11 | The Idea of Democracy, Reason and Politics | 111 |
| 12 | On the Versatility of Jaspers’ Thinking | 119 |
| 13 | Impact and Topicality | 125 |
| References | | 135 |
| Index | | 143 |