

Contents

Acknowledgments — V

Teresa Bartolomei and João R. Figueiredo

Foreword — 1

Prologue

José Tolentino De Mendonça

We Are All Called upon to Build Visions: The Divine Comedy as a Pedagogy of the Gaze — 11

Section I: Dante. A Poet of Our Time

Carlo Ossola

“Supra te et non subter”: The Biblical Humanism of the Comedy — 31

Paola Nasti

Biblical Signa and Dante’s Words: For a Taxonomy of Biblical Intertextuality in the Comedy — 45

Albert Russell Ascoli

Dante and the Faith of the Reader — 81

Teresa Bartolomei

Dante: Talking to the Dead – Giving a Voice to Silence — 109

Lina Bolzoni

Dante: Memory Matters in the Comedy — 149

Giulio Ferroni

Dante, Poet of a Europe to Come — 167

Section II: Dante in Portugal

Isabel Almeida

Dante in the Century of Camões — 179

VIII — Contents

João R. Figueiredo

Dante and Camões: Epic and the Portrayal of Humanity — 203

Arnaldo do Espírito Santo

Dante and the Fifth Empire — 215

Rita Marnoto

Dante in Portugal: An Ethereal Gaze — 243

Jorge Vaz de Carvalho

Dante: Poetry and Translation — 257

Epilogue

Alberto Manguel

Dante the Geographer — 269

Editions and Translations — 277

Notes on Contributors — 279

General Index — 287