

Contents

Preface — V

List of figures — IX

List of tables — XI

Alexandra Y. Aikhenvald

1 Introduction. Legends and narratives in language and culture — 1

R. M. W. Dixon

2 First person orientation in Yidiñ narratives and its implications — 17

Alan Rumsey, John Mansfield, Nicholas Evans

3 The sound of one quotation mark: Quoted speech in Indigenous Australian narrative — 33

Alexandra Y. Aikhenvald

4 A medial clause does it all: Coherence, continuity, and addressee involvement in Manambu — 73

Robert L. Bradshaw

5 Contact-induced clause-linking changes in Doromu-Koki: New genres, new strategies — 95

Hannah S. Sarvasy

6 Verbatim narrative prompting to children in Nungon — 121

Pema Wangdi

7 Adjoining clauses in Brokpa narratives — 143

Christoph Holz

8 Discourse functions of ‘visible’ and ‘nonvisible’ demonstratives in Tiang (New Ireland) and in a cross-linguistic perspective — 181

Gwendolyn Hyslop

- 9 Miratives and magic: On “newness” as iconic grammar in Kurtöp narratives — 219

Elena Skribnik

- 10 Reading Siberian folklore: Miratives, pre-mirative contexts and “Hero’s Journey” — 237

Francesca Merlan

- 11 Jawoyn trickster stories of Southern Arnhem Land — 261

Rosita Henry

- 12 Narratives of self and other: Auto/biography in Papua New Guinea — 289

Michael Wood

- 13 The origin of death in Kamula futures — 305

About the contributors — 325

Index of authors — 329

Index of languages and language families — 333

Index of subjects — 337