

Contents

Andrzej Bator and Zbigniew Pulka Introduction	7
Andrzej Bator Post-Analytical Theory and Philosophy of Law. New Problems, New Research Perspectives?	11
Jakub Łakomy Hermeneutic Universalism: A Post-Analytical Inquiry into the Political of Legal Interpretation	39
Michał Stambulski The Concept of Law in the Analytical and Post-Analytical Theory	57
Zbigniew Pulka Philosophical Premises of the Concept of Systemness of Law in Jerzy Wróblewski's Theory of Interpretation	75
Paweł Jabłoński Towards Post-Analytical Theory of Law. On the Consequences of Richard Rorty's Metaphilosophy	103
Przemysław Kaczmarek Legal Culture as Praxis: Towards Interactionalism	123
Andrzej Bator, Zbigniew Pulka and Adam Sulikowski Is It the End of the Theory of Law? A View from the Polish Perspective	139
Michał Paździora Postanalytical Challenges to Legal Education in Poland	167
Adam Sulikowski Law After the Death of God. Jurisprudence and Some Assertions of the Contemporary Philosophy	179