

111 Places

- 1___ 5Church Atlanta
Dining for art lovers | 10
- 2___ 54 Columns
Sol LeWitt prioritized concept and minimalism | 12
- 3___ 57th Fighter Group
Planes practically land on your table | 14
- 4___ 191 Peachtree Tower
The chandeliers are Instagram-worthy | 16
- 5___ 1895 Exposition Steps
1 park, 100 days, 6,000 exhibits, 800,000 visitors | 18
- 6___ 1897 Flatiron Building
Constructed five years before NYC's Flatiron | 20
- 7___ Ancient Police Lockup Box
This beautiful box has an ugly past | 22
- 8___ Art at the Airport
See hundreds of works of art, coming and going | 24
- 9___ Atlanta Roller Derby
Atlanta's only all-female roller derby | 26
- 10___ Atlanta's Canopy
What we like to call "a city in a forest" | 28
- 11___ Atlanta's Memorial to the Six Million
Designed and built by Holocaust survivors | 30
- 12___ Atlantic Steel Mill
This smokestack still stands | 32
- 13___ BAPS Mandir
The largest Hindu temple in the US | 34
- 14___ Besharat Gallery
National Geographic Magazine's most famous face | 36
- 15___ Biltmore Radio Towers
An icon since 1925, only broadcasted four years | 38
- 16___ Brave a Huey or a Cobra
Ride in helicopters that flew in Viet Nam | 40
- 17___ Carnegie Pavilion
Last remnants of the South's first public library | 42
- 18___ CDC Museum
Anti-contamination suit optional | 44

- 19___ Century Flood Line
Beauty and flood mitigation in one park | 46
- 20___ Coca-Cola Bottling Plant
First plant to bottle the addictive elixir in Georgia | 48
- 21___ Coca-Cola Sign
A beacon to the birthplace of Coca-Cola | 50
- 22___ The Cook's Warehouse
Atlanta's mothership for kitchens and cooking | 52
- 23___ Crypt of Civilization
To be opened in 8113 A.D. | 54
- 24___ DeKalb History Center
Learn about history older than Atlanta | 56
- 25___ Delta Flight Museum
Walk on the wing of a Boeing 747 | 58
- 26___ Dining on Buford Highway
Tastes from around the world on one street | 60
- 27___ Dogwood Bench
Perch on a blossom for a beautiful skyline view | 62
- 28___ Donut Brunch at BeetleCat
Deliciously clever | 64
- 29___ Dr. Bombay's Underwater Tea Party
Where high tea supports education | 66
- 30___ East Point History
Stories of a doctor's wife, a sailor, and a cheerleader | 68
- 31___ Ebenezer Baptist Church
Where MLK, Jr. was co-pastor | 70
- 32___ Emerald City Bagels
As close to New York City bagels as you can get | 72
- 33___ Erskine Memorial Fountain
Atlanta's oldest public fountain | 74
- 34___ Fernbank Observatory
A romantic, cheap date under the stars and planets | 76
- 35___ Fiddlin' John Carson
Final resting place of the origin of country music | 78
- 36___ Freedom Farmers Market
Have you thanked a farmer lately? | 80
- 37___ From One Hundred to One
Now there's only one passenger train to Atlanta | 82
- 38___ Golf Legend Bobby Jones
Bring a golf ball to honor one of the greats | 84

- 39___ Gravity Monument
Chasing gravity lifted physics | 86
- 40___ Hank Aaron's Record
Where Aaron broke Babe Ruth's home run record | 88
- 41___ Harry Houdini
Harry played Atlanta nearly 100 years ago | 90
- 42___ Herndon Home
From slavery to millionaire riches | 92
- 43___ The Hoo-Hoo Monument
A labor of lumber love | 94
- 44___ Horizon Theatre Company
Where you get to meet and greet the cast and crew | 96
- 45___ The House That Jack Built
A pioneer's legacy, hidden in plain sight | 98
- 46___ Jackson Street Bridge
Best skyline view and photo | 100
- 47___ Japanese Lantern
A 325-year-old gift from our sister state | 102
- 48___ Junkman's Daughter
Delight in shopping for the obscure and alternative | 104
- 49___ Les Lions d'Atlanta
Bet you don't know their names | 106
- 50___ Lifting the Veil of Ignorance
The legacy of Booker T. Washington | 108
- 51___ The Living Building
A regenerative building gives more than it takes | 110
- 52___ Loew's Grand Bricks
A Gone With the Wind treasure hidden in plain sight | 112
- 53___ Madame
She's still an "outrageous old broad" | 114
- 54___ Margaret Mitchell's Scandalous Dance
Blackballed by the Atlanta Junior League | 116
- 55___ Miss Mamie's Cupcakes
Two-time TV baking champion | 118
- 56___ MLK's Nobel Peace Prize
A dinner that would change Atlanta forever | 120
- 57___ MLK Statue
A beacon for civil and human rights | 122
- 58___ The Monetary Museum
The buck stops here, literally | 124

- 59___ Mummies at the Carlos
Meet the oldest mummy in the western hemisphere | 126
- 60___ My Parents' Basement
Your new favorite comic book bar | 128
- 61___ Naked Ballerinas
Calm down – it's art on Peachtree Street | 130
- 62___ National Pencil Company
Lynching inspires two very different organizations | 132
- 63___ Noguchi Playscapes
Playtime courtesy of world-renowned sculptor | 134
- 64___ Old Car City USA
4,400 cars on 40 acres – a photographer's dream | 136
- 65___ Old Fourth Distillery
Go pee inside the bookcase – it's allowed | 138
- 66___ Olympic Flame Lit by Ali
Kicking off the 1996 Olympics | 140
- 67___ The One Equestrian Statue
Famous for all the wrong reasons | 142
- 68___ Out Front Theatre
Atlanta's only LGBTQIA+ theater | 144
- 69___ Paralympic Legacy Monument
Honoring the triumph of the human spirit | 146
- 70___ The Peace Tree
A world away from war | 148
- 71___ The Phoenix
Rising from the ashes like its hometown | 150
- 72___ Pink House
Georgia treasures inside the Millennium Gate | 152
- 73___ Plaza Theatre
Atlanta's longest running cast, performing Rocky Horror | 154
- 74___ President Carter's Story
Peanut farmer, military, president, Nobel laureate | 156
- 75___ Presidential Signatures
A surprising collection for a Western art museum | 158
- 76___ Rainbow Terrace
Where Henry Heinz was murdered | 160
- 77___ Randolph-Lucas House
Built for Thomas Jefferson's great, great-grandson | 162
- 78___ Rare Amitabha Buddha
650-year-old Japanese Buddha at OUMA | 164

- 79___ Ray Charles Sings...
"Georgia on My Mind" at the Capitol | 166
- 80___ Red Phone Booth
A speakeasy experience with Southern hospitality | 168
- 81___ Rhodes Hall
The Castle on Peachtree | 170
- 82___ Rodin's The Shade
The death and rebirth of the arts in Atlanta | 172
- 83___ Rogue Olympic Torch
One man's desire to leave an Olympic legacy | 174
- 84___ Rufus M. Rose Mansion
A game of "What's Next?" | 176
- 85___ Sacred Sunset Spiral
Sculptress shapes stunning steel | 178
- 86___ SCAD FASH
Fashion and film dressed to the nines | 180
- 87___ Senoia Museum
From Princess Senoia to The Walking Dead | 182
- 88___ Shutze's Porcelain
This noted architect was also a collector | 184
- 89___ Sister Louisa's
This CHURCH is a bar – irreverent fun at its best | 186
- 90___ Stargazing at GaTech
Stellar views from downtown Atlanta | 188
- 91___ Starlight Drive-In Theatre
Drive in, chow down, snuggle up | 190
- 92___ The Superb
A presidential funeral procession on rails | 192
- 93___ Sweet Auburn Curb Market
Miss D's and more | 194
- 94___ Terminus
Be afraid of more than zombies | 196
- 95___ Theatrical Outfit
Atlanta's first desegregated restaurant | 198
- 96___ Tiffany Windows
Iconic, beautiful, and unmistakable | 200
- 97___ Tiny Doors ATL
An artist's huge contribution to Atlanta | 202
- 98___ Trilon Fountain
A refreshing visit with a German expressionist | 204

- 99___ Two-Headed Calf
Born in Georgia, immortalized under a golden dome | 206
- 100___ Union Founded in Atlanta
A lone bust with a significant history | 208
- 101___ Union General Monument
They're not all Confederate monuments | 210
- 102___ The Vortex
Home of the Quadruple Coronary Bypass Burger | 212
- 103___ Waffle House Museum
The restaurant that launched a dining empire | 214
- 104___ West Palisades Trail
Beautiful sights on an ancient river | 216
- 105___ Westview Cemetery
Home to some of Atlanta's finest | 218
- 106___ Winecoff Hotel Fire
Deadliest hotel fire ever leads to modern safety | 220
- 107___ Woodrow Wilson's Office
New lawyer and future president chooses Atlanta | 222
- 108___ World Athletes Monument
Where Atlanta mourned the death of Princess Diana | 224
- 109___ World War I Memorial
Honoring Fulton County's fallen heroes | 226
- 110___ Wren's Nest
A presidential owl | 228
- 111___ Zoo Atlanta's Origins
From bankrupt circus to high-tech habitats | 230