

Contents

Introduction	7
Part One: A Point of Theory
Leszek Leszczyński
Precedent as an Argument of Judicial Interpretation	11
Andrzej Korybski
Analogy as a Basis of Precedential Reasoning	27
Part Two: Judicial Practice
Ewa Skrzydło-Tefelska
The Precedent in Jurisprudence of the Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU) – Selected Judgments on Trademarks	45
Bartosz Liżewski
Few Remarks about the Precedent Qualification of the ECHR Decision	57
Marzena Myślińska
Precedent-Setting Argumentation in the Rulings of the Polish Constitutional Tribunal	69
Adam Szot
Precedential Argumentation in the Application of Public Law in a Civil Law Culture	77
Paweł Sadowski
Judicial Judgment as a Decision-Making Determinant of the Second Instance Administration Bodies	89
Andrzej Jakubecki
A Precedent as a Doctrinal and Jurisdictional Category of Civil Law	105
Ireneusz Nowikowski
The Problem of Precedents in the Criminal Judgements of the Polish Supreme Court	115

Part Three: Comparisons and Optimizations

John McClellan Marshall

The Utility of Stare Decisis in American Common Law Jurisprudence 127

Leszek Leszczyński

Precedent in the Polish Jurisprudence (General Outline) 141

Iwona Rzucidło-Grochowska

The Style of Judicial Opinion and the “Precedential” Potential of the Judicial Decision 151

Aleksander Jakubowski

Precedent Argumentation and Settled Case Law Argumentation in the Context of Technological Development of Artificial Intelligence 165

Leszek Leszczyński

Potential of the Precedential Practice in the Statutory Legal Order.
From Conditions to Prospects 181

Authors affiliation 195