

Table of Contents

Introduction	7
--------------	---

Part I – Law and Practical Reason

André Ferreira Leite de Paula

On the Unities of Law, Practical Reason, and Right: Foundations of the Unity of Reason beyond the Plurality of Knowledge and of Normative Orders	15
--	----

Bruce Anderson / Michael Shute

Is There a Unity of Practical Reason that Embraces Law and Morals?	117
--	-----

Gabriel Alejandro Encinas Duarte

Is Argumentation Theory Applicable for Legal Pluralism?	129
---	-----

Héctor A. Morales Zúñiga

On the Moral Foundations of a Fair Trial	145
--	-----

Giulia Terlizzi

The New Role of Extra Legal Principles: A Comparative Overview	179
--	-----

Part II – Conceptual Approaches on Law and Morals

Lorenz Kähler

What Constitutes the Concept Of Law? Potentialism as a Position Beyond Positivism and Natural Law Theory	195
--	-----

Andrés Santacoloma Santacoloma

Rethinking the Practical: The Migration Background of Thick Concepts	219
--	-----

Part III – On Legal versus Moral Normativity

João Andrade Neto
On the (dis)Similar Properties of Legal and Moral Duties 239

João Maurício Adeodato
Law and Morals According to a Realistic and Rhetorical Philosophy:
The Brazilian Case Revisited 257

Part IV – Morals and Legal Positivism

Jing Zhao
On the Relation between Law and Morality: From the Separation to the Connection Thesis in Gustav Radbruch’s Legal Philosophy 269

Wei Feng
Non-Positivism and Encountering a Weakened Necessity of the Separation between Law and Morality – Reflections on the Debate between Robert Alexy and Joseph Raz 305

Yanxiang Zhang
The Separation Thesis and H. L. A. Hart’s Legal Positivism 335

Henrique Neves
The Minimal Content of Natural Law: In What Sense is it Really Natural? 351

Marin Keršić
Is There a Moral Obligation to Obey the Law? Separation Thesis and Legal Theory in Croatia 367

About the Authors 375