

Contents

Introduction	1
Chapter 1: Finding Inner Stability	19
The Therapeutic Relationship	20
Establishing an Alliance	23
Appreciating and Using Available Resources	24
Finding Counterimages to Horror Scenarios	27
Practicing Aspects of Mindfulness	31
Getting to Know the Inner Observer	35
Finding a Counterweight to Images of Horror	36
Distancing: Learning to Dissociate from Horrifying Images	55
Learning to Cope with Difficult Feelings	62
Giving a Form to the Unpleasant Image	63
Encountering Our Younger Selves	67
The Inner Stage as a Place for Problematic Characters	78

Chapter 2: Learning a Healthy Approach to the Body	87
Self-Healing, Body Memory, and the Principle of Mindfulness	89
Breema Bodywork	91
More Body Exercises	93
Qigong	94
Chapter 3: Confronting the Horror	97
Preparation	97
Trauma Confrontation	102
After Trauma Confrontation	116
Chapter 4: Art Therapy in Trauma Healing (Susanne Lücke) ...	119
Introduction	119
Art Therapy Exercises and Interventions	123
Art Therapy Work on the Inner Stage	136
Chapter 5: Accepting and Integrating One's Past	147
Giving Sorrow Room and Form	147
Writing Letters	148
Encountering the Older Person You Will Someday Become	149
Rituals	150
Guilt and Redemption	151
Existential Questions	152
Gratitude and Reconciliation	153
Beginning Anew	154
Chapter 6: Psychodynamic Imaginative Trauma Therapy (PITT) with Children and Adolescents (Cornelia Appel-Ramb)	157
Introduction	157
Applying the Basic Principles of PITT in Child and Adolescent Psychotherapy	158
Treatment	163
Outlook	192

Appendix: The Most Important Steps in Therapy	195
List of Exercises	201
Notes	205
Index	213
About the Authors	232