

Table of Contents

Daniele De Santis

Introduction 9

Claudio Majolino

Introduction and First Cartesian Meditation: Husserl on the Threefold Significance of Descartes' *Meditationes 21

Aurélien Djian

Second Cartesian Meditation: »Horizon« as a Universal Principle of Husserl's Transcendental Phenomenology 63

Lilian Alweiss

Third Cartesian Meditation: Ontology after Kant 91

Daniele De Santis

Fourth Cartesian Meditation: Husserl's Transcendental
Idealism and the Monad 113

Sara Heinämaa

Fifth Cartesian Meditation (§§ 42–54): Analysis of Otherness and Embodiment 141

Alice Pugliese

Fifth Cartesian Meditation (§§ 55–64): The Schema »Unity-
Multiplicity« as the (Not-So) Hidden Metaphysics in Husserl's
*Cartesian Meditations 169

Danilo Manca

Eugen Fink and the Hegelian Motifs Underlying Husserl's
*Cartesian Meditations 193

Witold Płotka

Roman Ingarden's Remarks on the Cartesian Meditations: Context, Main Arguments and Developments	215
---	------------

Ignacio Quepons

Horizons of Self-Reflection: Remarks on Ludwig Landgrebe's Critique of Husserl's Theory of Phenomenological Reflection	237
---	------------

Stefano Bancalari

The Influence of the Cartesian Meditations on the Thought of Emmanuel Levinas	259
---	------------

Jakub Čapek

Sharing and Exposure: Merleau-Ponty and The Cartesian Meditations	281
---	------------

Saulius Geniusas

Paul Ricoeur's Husserlian Heresies: The Case of the Cartesian Meditations	303
---	------------

Hynek Janoušek, Wojciech Starzyński

Jan Patočka on Descartes and Husserl's Cartesianism	329
--	------------

Federico Lijoi

Meditations on Purity: Edmund Husserl and Hans Kelsen . .	353
--	------------

Emanuela Carta

Remarks on Evidence and Truth in Husserl's Theory of Justification	375
---	------------

Rosemary Jane Rizo-Patron de Lerner

First Philosophy and Ultimate Foundations: Revisiting Husserl's Cartesian Way	401
--	------------

Andreea Smaranda Aldea

Self-Othering, Self-Transformation, and Theoretical Freedom: Self-Variation and Husserl's Phenomenology as Radical Immanent Critique	429
---	------------

Agustín Serrano de Haro
Jean-François Lavigne’s Objection to Phenomenological Idealism: Critical Remarks with the Help of the Cartesian Meditations 459

Sergio Pérez-Gatica
The Distinction between »First« and »Universal« Philosophy in Husserl’s Cartesian Meditations: On a Basic Precondition for the Transformation of Philosophy into a Rigorous Science 481

Leonard Ip
From »Second Philosophy« to »Last Philosophy«: Husserl’s Idea of Metaphysics as the Absolute Science of Factual Reality 497