

111 Places

- 1___ Anchor Exchange
Cold War era tunnel system | 10
- 2___ The Angry Wall
A towering wall of mysterious cylinders | 12
- 3___ Apple Tree
How do you like them apples? | 14
- 4___ The Archery
World's oldest lawn tennis club | 16
- 5___ Argent Centre
Multi-coloured Romanesque | 18
- 6___ Ashley Building
A Brutalist Tower of Babel | 20
- 7___ Asian Fashion Mile
Bridal boutiques and textile bazaars from the East | 22
- 8___ Austin Village
A clue in kit form to a country at war | 24
- 9___ Bacchus Bar
Portal to a time-travelling fantasia | 26
- 10___ Back to Backs Museum
Throw them up, pack them in | 28
- 11___ The Bartons Arms
Showboating Minton Hollins opulence | 30
- 12___ Bell Edison Building
Victorian hi-tech communication | 32
- 13___ Birmingham Bike Foundry
Recycling since 2010 | 34
- 14___ Birmingham Board Schools
Beacons of the future | 36
- 15___ Birmingham Opera Company
Nomadic urban explorers | 38
- 16___ Bishop Asbury Cottage
The best known Black Country museum in America | 40
- 17___ Black Sabbath Bench
Relax with the local heroes of heavy metal | 42
- 18___ Bournville Carillon
Mechanical bells played by keyboard | 44

- 19___ The Bull
A country pub in the Gun Quarter | 46
- 20___ Bullring Indoor Market
Large-scale fish retail | 48
- 21___ Bullring Meteorite
A fallen star of heavy metal | 50
- 22___ Calthorpe Estate
Birmingham's garden suburb | 52
- 23___ Cardinal Newman Museum
'The people of Birmingham have souls too' | 54
- 24___ Castle Bromwich Gardens
Striking 18th-century formal garden | 56
- 25___ Catacombs
Ancient solution to overcrowded churchyards | 58
- 26___ Chinese Pagoda
Landmark gateway to the Chinese Quarter | 60
- 27___ City Farm
A rustic sliver in an urban setting | 62
- 28___ Coffin Works
Coffin fittings for the UK's top brass | 64
- 29___ Coleshill Pillory
Reminder of the ruthless days of public punishment | 66
- 30___ Colley Ison Gallery
Contemporary art at the city's heart | 68
- 31___ The Conservatoire
An urban castle of concerts | 70
- 32___ Cornwall Street
Unique Metropolitan Arts and Crafts townhouses | 72
- 33___ Dayus Square
Home of The Girl from Hockley | 74
- 34___ Dhamma Talaka Pagoda
The Reservoir of Truth in the heart of Ladywood | 76
- 35___ The Diskery
Record shop that became a museum of itself | 78
- 36___ Duddeston Viaduct
The folly of early railway rivalry | 80
- 37___ Duran Duran House
Deco lodge was pop group's early practice room | 82
- 38___ Eagle Insurance Building
The 20th century starts here | 84

- 39___ Edgbaston Reservoir
Birmingham-on-Sea | 86
- 40___ Edith Holden Country
Nature walks of an Edwardian lady | 88
- 41___ Elan Valley Model
Tribute to Birmingham's drinking water source | 90
- 42___ The Emergence of Women
Side-lined tapestry chronicles women's history | 92
- 43___ The Face of the Moon
John Russell's lunar landscape in pastel | 94
- 44___ Fellows, Morton & Clayton
Ark-shaped HQ for the mighty canal carriers | 96
- 45___ Fertility Seats
Public benches allow a pregnant pause | 98
- 46___ Findings Trail
Lost and found moments from past and present | 100
- 47___ Foka Wolf
Rising star of savage street art | 102
- 48___ Galton Bridge
Mighty ironwork spans a man-made valley | 104
- 49___ Grand Union Gallery
Cutting edge art at the old blade works | 106
- 50___ Grazebrook Engine
Muscular powerhouse from the Steam Age | 108
- 51___ Great Stone Inn
How many stones in a pound? | 110
- 52___ Handsworth Old Town Hall
The Town Hall that was never a Town Hall | 112
- 53___ Harborne Walkway
Railway line that became a park | 114
- 54___ Hay Hall
Elizabethan hall marooned in industrial estate | 116
- 55___ H B Sale
Birmingham's flatiron building | 118
- 56___ Highgate Windmill
Walsall's old-world industrial remnant | 120
- 57___ Hockley Flyover Murals
What a relief! | 122
- 58___ The Holdout Building
Sometimes less is more | 124

- 59___ Industry and Genius
Tribute to an influential typographer | 126
- 60___ John Hall-Edwards Plaque
Remembering an X-Ray pioneer | 128
- 61___ Kardomah Café
Home of Birmingham Surrealism | 130
- 62___ The Kennedy Memorial
Celebrating an Irish Quarter idol | 132
- 63___ Kilder
Underneath the arches | 134
- 64___ Kingsbury Water Park
A day out to Birmingham's Lake District | 136
- 65___ Lapworth Geology Museum
Let's rock | 138
- 66___ Last Public Hanging
Grisly memorial in a grim setting | 140
- 67___ Legend of St Kenelm
Celtic tradition lives on beyond the churchyard | 142
- 68___ The Lock-Up
Steelhouse Lane's historic mini prison | 144
- 69___ Lucifer
'Better to reign in Hell than serve in Heaven' | 146
- 70___ Mary Vale Road ABC Houses
A gazetteer of Victorian destinations | 148
- 71___ Medicine Bakery & Gallery
Artisan bakery, café and gallery | 150
- 72___ Metchley Fort
What have the Romans ever done for Birmingham? | 152
- 73___ Midland Bank Demon
Stone-faced satire of Victorian fat cats | 154
- 74___ Moor Pool Estate
The secret garden suburb | 156
- 75___ Moseley Dovecote
18th-century tower in a peaceful setting | 158
- 76___ Moseley Road Baths
Victorian pools swimming against the current | 160
- 77___ Mothers
Listen with Mothers | 162
- 78___ Museum Collection Centre
An epic collection of collections | 164

- 79___ Netherton Tunnel
Canalside walk for cavers | 166
- 80___ New Street Signal Box
Zigzagging concrete defies the bulldozers | 168
- 81___ New St Station Cladding
A distorted reflection of a city | 170
- 82___ Oak House
A 17th-century wealthy yeoman farmer's house | 172
- 83___ Old Joe
AKA The Joseph Chamberlain Memorial Clock Tower | 174
- 84___ Orange Chips
Black Country gold | 176
- 85___ Outside-In
Ikon Gallery's spy glass | 178
- 86___ Perrott's Folly
Inscrutable tower from the 18th century | 180
- 87___ Piccadilly Arcade
Elegant arcade hides a secret | 182
- 88___ Pillbox
Stirchley's lost bunker | 184
- 89___ Prefabs
Long live temporary housing! | 186
- 90___ Provide
Unapologetically Brummie design | 188
- 91___ Ristorante Caffè Gustami
Authentic Italian cuisine in a humble setting | 190
- 92___ The Roundhouse
Horseshoe-shaped corporation stables | 192
- 93___ Rowley Hills
Overlooked viewpoint in reclaimed quarry | 194
- 94___ Rowton House
Affordable city living for Victorian workers | 196
- 95___ St Basil's Church
An Italian touch in deepest Digbeth | 198
- 96___ St Thomas' Garden
War and Peace between the ring roads | 200
- 97___ Shard End Griffins
Six stone sentinels keep guard in Shard End | 202
- 98___ Shri Venkateswara Temple
Beautiful Hindu temple complex | 204

- 99____ Snow Hill Mosaic
Clues to Sherlock Holmes' Birmingham connection | 206
- 100____ Spaghetti Junction
It's complicated | 208
- 101____ Stratford House
Ambrose and Bridget Rotton's farmstead | 210
- 102____ Strathallan Hotel
Motel shows Birmingham's enduring passion for cars | 212
- 103____ Sutton Coldfield Odeon
Art Deco popcorn palace | 214
- 104____ Sutton Park
Urban moorland over the horizon | 216
- 105____ Thornton Road Poltergeist
Noisy spirits in a quiet suburb | 218
- 106____ Tilt
City arcade games | 220
- 107____ Tony Hancock Memorial
Remembering the lugubrious legend | 222
- 108____ Viceroy Close Demons
The Temptation of St. Anthony sculptures | 224
- 109____ Webster & Horsfall Museum
Totally wired for three centuries | 226
- 110____ Weoley Castle
Ruined remains of a mediaeval castle | 228
- 111____ Wren's Nest
Home of the Dudley Bug | 230