

CONTENTS

List of Tables	xi
List of Diagrams	xiii
List of Photos	xv
Acknowledgments	xvii
Chapter 1. Applying Peircean Semiotics to the Elder Futhark Tradition	1
Chapter 2. Peirce and the Semiotic Whole	7
The Complete Sign	7
Definition of the Sign	8
Triadic Relations	8
Phenomenological Categories and How They Relate to the Runemaster's Experience	10
Peirce's Phaneron and the Umwelt of the Runemaster	13
Peirce's Typology for the Sign in Relation to the Object: The Role of the Icon	15
Peirce's Typology for the Sign in Relation to the Object: The Role of the Index	16
The Dynamic Relationship between Icon and Index within the Magical Object	16

Peirce's Typology for the Sign in Relation to the Object: The Role of the Symbol	17
The Shared System(s) of Signs	18
Chapter 3. What Is Magical Communication?	21
Magical Communication and Subjectivity	21
Magic: The Etymon	22
The Evolutionist Approach to Magical Communication: Tylor and Frazer	23
Peirce and the Zeitgeist of Tylor and Frazer	24
A Sociological Approach to Magic: Mauss and Durkheim	25
Emotionalist Approaches: Malinowski and Lévy-Bruhl	26
Traditional Semiotic Approaches to Magic	28
Runes, Magical Signs, and Relatedness	30
Defining Magical Communication within a Runic Context	31
Animism vs. Dynamism	32
Further Commentary Concerning Flowers (1986; 2014)	34
So-called Magic Words	36
Runes as Symbols	36
Sn and Interconnected Sign-Networks	37
Connecting Peirce with Frazer	38
The Law of Magical Semiosis	39
How Does the Sign-Network Operate within the Umwelt of the Runemaster?	40
Chapter 4. A Brief Overview of the Origin of the Elder Futhark	45
The Origin of the Runes	45
Transition from the Elder Futhark to the Younger Futhark	47
Transition from the Elder Futhark to the Anglo-Saxon Futhorc	48
Chapter 5. Runes and Numinous Qualities	51
Attestations of the Word Rune	51
Gothic Sources	52
Early Old (West) Norse Attestations	53
NWGmc Appellations	56
Old Saxon and the Word of God	56
Song-Rune	57

Rune Poems as Source Material	59
Concluding Comments	61
Chapter 6. Elder Futhark Analyses	65
Discussion of Corpus	65
Kragehul Spear Shaft (DR 196)	66
Björketorp (DR 360)	73
The Horn(s) of Gallehus (DR 12)	82
Gummarp Runestone (DR 358)	99
Lindholm Amulet (DR 261)	105
Straum Whetstone (KJ 50)	120
Ribe Skull Fragment (DR EM85; 151)	129
The Noleby Runestone (KJ 67)	139
Eggja Runestone (N KJ 101)	147
Chapter 7. Conclusion	177
Conclusions Concerning the Umwelt , Weltanschauung , and Phanera of the Runemaster	177
Appendix A. The Elder Futhork Names, Meanings, and Standard Transcription	181
Appendix B. The Younger Futhork Names, Meanings, and Standard Transcription	183
Appendix C. The Anglo-Saxon Futhorc Names, Meanings, and Standard Transcription	185
Appendix D. Gothic Data Concerning Rune, βουλή, μυστήριον, and συμβούλιον	187
Index	193