

Contents

INTRODUCTION: A special time to talk about death in old age	1
PART I The only normal death-age	13
CHAPTER 1 Too old to die young: The perception and visibility of death in old age	15
CHAPTER 2 Too old not to remind us about death	41
CHAPTER 3 The ageing population as a threat to society	69
PART II Encounters with death	95
CHAPTER 4 Meeting death – places and occasions	97
CHAPTER 5 Facing the death of loved ones	123
CHAPTER 6 Public debates about the value of the end	149
PART III Living towards death	177

CHAPTER 7
In the shadow of death	179
CHAPTER 8
Handling the last stage	203
CHAPTER 9
Fate's deception	233
EPILOGUE:
The afterlife of the pandemic	261
Bibliography	271
Index	303