

111 Places

- 1___ 10 Adam Street
Not Downing Street | 10
- 2___ Albert Bridge
A frail old soldier | 12
- 3___ Angela's Fountain
The gift of a remarkable woman | 14
- 4___ Animals in War Memorial
A memorial that touches the heart | 16
- 5___ Apothecaries' Hall
A survival from the age of guilds | 18
- 6___ The Argyll Arms
A refuge from shopping hell | 20
- 7___ The Athenaeum Club
The goddess admits those who are worthy | 22
- 8___ The Barbican
A monstrosity or a home with culture? | 24
- 9___ Belgrave Square
Family property | 26
- 10___ Berry Bros. & Rudd
Wine merchants for 300 years | 28
- 11___ Bevis Marks Synagogue
A 300-year-old Jewish community | 30
- 12___ The Boat Gardens
Pink blossom on the grey river | 32
- 13___ Brixton Market
An explosion of colours and flavours | 34
- 14___ Brockwell Park
Adele was moved to tears | 36
- 15___ The Brunswick Plane
The urban tree | 38
- 16___ Bunhill Fields
Lunch among the tombstones | 40
- 17___ Bushy Park
The beginning of a mass movement | 42
- 18___ Cabbies' Shelter in Grosvenor Gardens
Huts that are architectural heritage | 44

- 19___ Chinatown
An enclave in Soho | 46
- 20___ Christie's
Classier than eBay | 48
- 21___ The Coade Stone Lion
Unexpectedly humble origins | 50
- 22___ Cousin Lane Stairs
Down to a beach on the Thames | 52
- 23___ Cross Bones Graveyard
In memory of the outcast and downtrodden | 54
- 24___ The Duke of York Column
A man who made it to the top | 56
- 25___ East India Dock
Spice and dragonflies | 58
- 26___ Eccleston Mews
Ideal homes in the stables | 60
- 27___ The Ecuadorean Embassy
Asylum for Julian Assange | 62
- 28___ Edgware Road
'Little Beirut' in London | 64
- 29___ Eel Pie Island
A refuge for artists and musicians | 66
- 30___ Fournier Street
The ghosts of Huguenots and Jewish tailors | 68
- 31___ The Fourth Plinth
No more statues of soldiers, please! | 70
- 32___ Fulham Market Hall
Street food under a roof | 72
- 33___ Fulham Palace
A country seat for bishops | 74
- 34___ The Gas Lamp in Carting Lane
Sewers and street lighting | 76
- 35___ Gasholder Park
Mirrors of change | 78
- 36___ God's Own Junkyard
Rolling Scones and an assault on the eyeballs | 80
- 37___ The Golden Boy
Gluttony, fire and body-snatching | 82
- 38___ The Greenwich Foot Tunnel
Under the Thames and off to Scotland | 84

- 39___ The Grenadier
Cosy, until the ghost appears | 86
- 40___ The Hardy Tree
Human jam | 88
- 41___ Hawksmoor's Pyramid
An enigma in the churchyard | 90
- 42___ The Head of Invention
Inspiration for designers | 92
- 43___ Highgate Wood
The remains of an ancient forest | 94
- 44___ Holland Park
More than a Dutch garden | 96
- 45___ The Horniman Museum
Varied fun for all ages | 98
- 46___ Inner Temple Garden
For lawyers and everyone else | 100
- 47___ Isabella Plantation
An enchanted garden in the wide green park | 102
- 48___ James Smith & Sons
Where a gentleman buys his umbrella | 104
- 49___ Jamme Masjid Mosque
A house of three religions | 106
- 50___ The K2 Telephone Kiosk
The prototype of a famous design | 108
- 51___ The Kindertransport Monument
The place where 10,000 Jewish children arrived | 110
- 52___ Limehouse Basin
Post-industrial London | 112
- 53___ Lincoln's Inn
A tranquil refuge for lawyers | 114
- 54___ Little Ben
Off-message since Brexit | 116
- 55___ The Lloyd's Building
Futuristic, yet a monument | 118
- 56___ London Stone
The city's mythical foundation stone | 120
- 57___ Lord's Cricket Ground
A sacred site for fans of the summer sport | 122
- 58___ M. Manze
Eel, pie and mash in Peckham | 124

- 59___ The Marx Memorial Library
Lenin, trade unions and the Spanish Civil War | 126
- 60___ The Molehill
How a victorious king was laid low | 128
- 61___ Mudchute City Farm
Animals for urban children | 130
- 62___ The Naked Ladies
Unexpected frolics by the Thames | 132
- 63___ Neal's Yard
Alternative lifestyle and Monty Python | 134
- 64___ The Niche from Old London Bridge
Stones that were admitted to hospital | 136
- 65___ Nunhead Cemetery
Romantic decay | 138
- 66___ One New Change
A free vista of London and St Paul's Cathedral | 140
- 67___ Orbit
An observation tower on the Olympic site | 142
- 68___ The OXO Tower
Architecture as advertising | 144
- 69___ Paddington Street Gardens
Keep the city clean and green | 146
- 70___ The Peabody Estate in Whitecross Street
150 years of social housing projects | 148
- 71___ Peckham Levels
A car park, garish and creative | 150
- 72___ The Piccadilly Line
Design and architecture in the Tube | 152
- 73___ Pimlico Road Farmers' Market
Mozart and the magic fruit | 154
- 74___ Postman's Park
A memorial for unsung heroes | 156
- 75___ The Princess Diana Memorial Fountain
Splashing around is tolerated | 158
- 76___ The Prospect of Whitby
A last drink for condemned pirates | 160
- 77___ Quantum Cloud
Art beneath wide skies | 162
- 78___ The Queen Mother Memorial
Horses, corgis and the Blitz | 164

- 79___ Queen Square
A green place for parents, children and queens | 166
- 80___ Richmond-on-Thames
Where the river takes on a rural character | 168
- 81___ Robbie Williams' House
Disharmony among musicians | 170
- 82___ The Rolling Bridge
A party piece by a celebrated designer | 172
- 83___ The Roman City Wall
Londinium has not quite disappeared | 174
- 84___ The Roof Garden
Flowers and concrete | 176
- 85___ The Ropewalk
Street food from the railway arches | 178
- 86___ Royal Arcade
Connections to the palace are good for business | 180
- 87___ The Scalpel
Play video! | 182
- 88___ Shad Thames
Sought-after homes in Charles Dickens' slum | 184
- 89___ Shoreditch Street Art
Legal or illegal, subversive or sponsored | 186
- 90___ Shri Swaminarayan Mandir
A Hindu temple, open to everyone | 188
- 91___ Spencer House
Old money, expensive taste | 190
- 92___ St Anne's Church, Soho
Where the German king of Corsica is buried | 192
- 93___ St Bartholomew-the-Great
The court jester's church, now a film set | 194
- 94___ St Bride's
Slender steeple, creepy crypt | 196
- 95___ St Helen's Bishopsgate
Christ's message in the financial district | 198
- 96___ St John's Lodge Garden
A sequestered spot in Regent's Park | 200
- 97___ St Pancras Station
An engineering miracle based on beer | 202
- 98___ Three Mills Island
Grinding grain with tidal power | 204

- 99___ The Tibetan Peace Garden
A mandala at the cannon's mouth | 206
- 100___ Tower Bridge Wharf
A clear view of the river | 208
- 101___ The Trafalgar Tavern
Maritime tradition on the Greenwich Meridian | 210
- 102___ Trellick Tower
The rehabilitation of an architectural villain | 212
- 103___ Tyburn Convent
A shrine to Roman Catholic martyrs | 214
- 104___ Waterloo Bridge
One of the best views along the Thames | 216
- 105___ The Westbourne
The stream that flows through a Tube station | 218
- 106___ The White Building
Art and pizza by the canal | 220
- 107___ Whitechapel Gallery
Art for all and a golden tree | 222
- 108___ Wilton's Music Hall
Bare boards, crumbling plaster | 224
- 109___ The Wimbledon Windmill
A survival from rustic village days | 226
- 110___ Word on the Water
The floating bookshop | 228
- 112___ Ye Olde Mitre
A well-hidden pub | 230