

Contents

Prfeace — V

Chapter 1

Introduction: Social Migration, Ethnic Identity, Socio-Cultural Integration and Acculturation of Migrants and Ethnic Minorities — 1

- 1.1 Social Migration: Definition and Theories — 1
- 1.2 Ethnic Identity and Identification — 4
- 1.3 Social Networks and Community — 6
- 1.4 Acculturation and Cultural Integration — 9
- 1.5 World-Wide Jewry: Between Privileged Minorities and Antisemitism — 11
 - 1.5.1 Jews as Urban Minorities: Dynamic Patterns of Identity — 11
 - 1.5.2 Antisemitism: 'New' and 'Old' — 13
- 1.6 Jews in Contemporary Europe: Between Individual, Collective and National — 15
 - 1.6.1 From Colonialism to Resettlement: Policy towards Immigrants and Ethnic Minorities in Europe after World War II — 15
 - 1.6.2 Recent Antisemitism in Europe (France and Belgium Included) — 18
 - 1.6.3 Jews in Contemporary Europe: Changing Boundaries of Integration and Identity — 20
- 1.7 Structure of the Book — 25

Chapter 2

The Participants: Socio-Demographic and Socio-Economic Characteristics — 27

- 2.1 Overview — 27
- 2.2 Socio-Demographic Characteristics by City of Residence — 30
- 2.3 Socio-Economic Characteristics by City of Residence — 33
- 2.4 A Comparison between Native-Born and Immigrants according to Background Characteristics — 35
- 2.5 Summary — 36

XII — Contents

Chapter 8

Discussion: Two Jewish Communities in Three Cities - Challenges of Integration, Acculturation and Identity — 123

- 8.1 Overview — 123
- 8.2 Integration and Acculturation to the Non-Jewish Majority — 124
- 8.3 Jewish Communal Continuity and Vitality — 126
- 8.4 Cultural Integration within Jewish Communities: Ethnic Identity and Acculturation — 129
- 8.5 Policy Trajectories and Further Research — 131

List of Tables — 135

References — 137

Index — 145