

Contents

1	An Encourager	1
	Reference	3
2	Data Security	5
2.1	First Risks, Then Opportunities	5
2.2	Developments	6
2.3	Tasks of Controlling, Tasks of the IT Departments	6
2.4	Security in Early Times.	7
2.5	Organisation of Security	7
2.6	Via Negativa	9
2.7	People	10
2.8	External Data Access	10
2.9	Cyber Insurance	11
	References.	11
3	Image of Man	13
3.1	Fundamentals of Change.	13
3.2	Right and Wrong Action	14
3.3	Alternative Actions of the Controlling Department	15
3.4	Further Procedure	16
	References.	16
4	Digitization	17
4.1	The Objectives of Digitisation	17
4.2	Digitization of Controlling	18
4.3	Historical Recourse.	19
4.4	Today's Contradiction.	19
	References.	20
5	Algorithms, Possibilities and Limits	21
5.1	The Emperor's New Clothes.	21
5.2	Consultants and Salespersons.	22

5.3	Algorithms as the Basis of Digitisation	23
5.4	Algorithms	23
5.5	Cooperation Between Man and Machine	25
5.6	Complicated or Complex Decisions	25
5.7	Competition.	26
5.8	Buffering.	27
5.9	Different Algorithms.	29
5.10	Standard Controlling Procedure	29
5.11	Different Forms of Decision	29
5.12	General Rule	30
5.13	Implementation in Controlling, Implementation by Controlling	30
	References.	31
6	Use of Algorithms in Controlling	33
6.1	Hill-Climbing Algorithm	33
6.2	The Stop Problem, Special Algorithm	36
6.3	Gotts' Algorithm.	38
6.4	Bad Algorithms.	38
	References.	39
7	Expert Knowledge	41
7.1	Limits of Expert Knowledge.	41
7.2	Gut Feeling	42
	References.	44
8	Via Negativa	45
8.1	Predicting the Future.	45
8.2	Long-Term Developments	46
8.3	Controlling and Uncertainty	46
8.4	Business Success.	47
8.5	Implementation in the Digital Environment.	47
8.6	What Does Not Remain?	48
	References.	48
9	Agility	49
9.1	Agility and Digitalisation	49
9.2	Practical Applications	50
	References.	51
10	Readiness for Digitization	53
10.1	Necessity.	53
10.2	Perception of Digitisation.	54
10.3	Organisation of Digitisation	54

10.4	With Each Other: Against Each Other	55
10.5	Task, Competence, Responsibility	56
	Reference	56
11	Top-Down Versus Bottom-Up	57
11.1	Competitive Advantages	57
11.2	Top-Down	58
11.3	Digital Reporting	58
11.4	The Initial Situation	59
11.5	Rules of the Game	59
11.6	Bottom-Up	60
	References	61
12	Digitization of Controlling	63
12.1	Digital Controlling	63
12.2	Increasing the Productivity of the Controlling System	64
12.3	Controlling of Controlling?	65
12.4	New Tasks, New Role	66
	References	67
13	Reporting	69
13.1	Priorities of Controlling	69
13.2	Significance for Digitisation	70
13.3	Changes	71
13.4	Implementation	72
13.5	Productivity	73
	Reference	73
14	Strategy	75
14.1	Popular Beliefs and Misconceptions	75
14.2	Future Prospects and Views	76
14.3	Consultants and AI	77
14.4	Solutions	78
14.5	Calculate	79
14.6	Acting, Not Calculating	79
	References	81
15	Operational Development	83
15.1	Importance of Operational Development	83
15.2	Digitisation of Operational Processes	84
15.3	Transposition	85
15.4	Buffering	86
15.5	Selection of Digital Offers	86
15.6	Customers and Creativity	87

15.7	Scalability of the Digital Solution	88
15.8	Non-scalable Solutions	89
15.9	Digital, Operational Decisions	90
	References	91
16	Start-Ups for Digitalisation	93
16.1	Bottom-Up Solutions	93
16.2	Tasks of Controlling	94
16.3	Organisational Structures	94
16.4	Solutions	95
16.5	Solutions for Medium-Sized Businesses	96
16.6	Separation and Unity	97
16.7	Controlling of the Unit	98
16.8	Innovation Lab	98
	References	99