

Contents

Acknowledgments	vi
1 The significance of great/small power alliances	1
2 Italy and Germany	12
3 Germany and Japan during World War II: allies at a distance	28
4 Hungary	38
5 Romania	66
6 Finland: the co-belligerent of Nazi Germany	88
7 Vichy France: the occupied ally	121
8 Spain: the friendly neutral	140
9 Bulgaria: an ally at a distance	153
10 Croatia: the vassal state	166
11 Switzerland and Sweden: the armed neutrals	182
12 The Islamic world and Nazi Germany	194
13 Conclusion: the pitfalls of great and small power alliances	207
Index	210