

CONTENTS

6	ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS
11	INTRODUCTION
	CHAPTER ONE
	THE FORMATIVE YEARS: CONNECTIONS AND FOUNDATIONS
35	An Incomplete Portrait
41	Between the Academy and Kaffeehauskultur: A New Life in Vienna
46	Celebrating Individualism: The Earliest Galaxies
55	Ties to Dada and De Stijl: Taking Root in the Avant-Garde
69	Crossing the Atlantic: An Ambassador of European Modernism
83	Finally, Home
	CHAPTER TWO
	A SURREALIST CONTEXT: THE PORTRAIT GALAXIES OF THE 1940S
97	Via the Theater: The Gallery as a Stage in New York and Paris
113	The Postwar Years: A Return to Making Art
117	Depictions of Marcel Duchamp and E. E. Cummings: Examples of Fragmentation
128	Notes on Combining a Portrait and an Object
135	From Drawing to Painting: Introducing Color and Wood
145	Expansion into the Third Dimension
	CHAPTER THREE
	SCULPTURAL IF NOT ENVIRONMENTAL: THE GALAXIES OF THE 1950S
165	Finding Recognition in Dialogue with Abstract Expressionism
171	1951: The Impact of Japanese Avant-Garde Calligraphy
182	The Club: A New Intellectual Community
183	De Kooning and Southern France: A New Sense of Color
195	Veiling Content: Galaxy C , Galaxy D and Blue Hand Galaxy
199	Exhibiting at the Sidney Janis Gallery and Traveling to Houston
204	A Visit with Picasso and the Large Horse Galaxy
220	Artist, Architect, Curator: The World House Galleries
	CHAPTER FOUR
	SHAPED AND MOUNTED: THE GALAXIES OF THE 1960S
231	A Different Approach
242	Inside the Studio: Acrobatic Balancing Acts
253	Joining the Leo Castelli Gallery
267	At the Guggenheim: An Installation on Its Own Terms
281	The Last Galaxy: Goya and Kiesler
	CHAPTER FIVE
	CONTEMPLATIONS OF DEATH AND RESURGENCE
293	Illness and Beginnings
297	An Eye on the Future
303	Success
304	The Last Summer and a Final Sketchbook
314	He Has Flown Off to the Moon: A Memorial as Happening
	EPILOGUE
333	Left in Progress: Interaction, Collaboration and Motion
341	Endings are Beginnings: Notes on New Media
348	LIST OF IMAGES
356	CHRONOLOGY
362	BIBLIOGRAPHY
369	INDEX
375	ABOUT THE AUTHOR