

~: CONTENTS ~:

Introduction. Historical Perspectives on the German Football Nation 1
Rebecca Dawson, Bastian Heinsohn, Oliver Knabe, and Alan McDougall

Part I. A Border-Crossing Game: German Football and International Cultural Exchange

Chapter 1. The Introduction and Integration of Football into a Divided Society: Conservative and Socialist Football in Germany from 1871 to 1933 23
Thomas Adam

Chapter 2. Fußball Internationale: Toward a Global History of GDR Football 43
Alan McDougall

Chapter 3. Local Fans, Global Players: Contradictions in Postindustrial Football 62
Stephan Schindler

Part II: Race, Exclusion, and Otherness in German Football

Chapter 4. Willy Meisl's "German Football Nation": Internationalism,
Austrian Patriotism, and Jewish Pride in Interwar Sports Writing 83
Kay Schiller

Chapter 5. Commodified, Corrupted, and Capitalist: Combatting the Modern Athletic Machine in Melchior Vischer's
Fußballspieler und Indianer 102
Rebecca Dawson

Chapter 6. Controlling Definitions: Racism and German Identity
after Mesut Özil's National Team Resignation 119
Kate Zambon

Part III: Forming Identities through Football: Class and Gender in German Culture

Chapter 7. The Making of a Football Myth: Memory, Masculinity, and the Media Friederike B. Emonds	143
Chapter 8. A Gendered Network of Double Binds in Joachim Hasler's Football Musical Don't Cheat, Darling! Kaleigh Bangor	164
Chapter 9. From GDR-Emigrant to Third-Class Citizen: Football Stadiums, Social Divides, and East German Identities in Andreas Gläser's BFC Is to Blame for the Wall Oliver Knabe	181

Part IV: The Politics Beyond the Pitch: German Fandom and Spectatorship

Chapter 10. Educating the Spectator: Athlete-Fan Interplay in the Early German Football Film The Eleven Devils by Zoltan Korda Bastian Heinsohn	201
Chapter 11. Antisemitic Metaphors in German Football Fan Culture Directed at RB Leipzig Pavel Brunssen	218
Chapter 12. One Foot on the Ball and the Other Nearly in Jail? Analyzing the Role of Social Work in the Interaction of Supporters, Police, and the Media in Hamburg Football Fabian Fritz	240
Chapter 13. Countering Contingency: Aesthetics and Fan Codetermination in German Football Alex Holzniekemper	258
Conclusion. "Fußball ist alles!" Football's Importance in German Society Timm Beichelt	276
Index	295