Foreword by Paul Feyerabend.....	V
Preface.....	JIX

Chapter 1: Open Problems of the Present-Day Theoretical Chemistry

1.1 The Overproduction of Truth.....	1
1.2 Chemical Theories.....	3
1.3 "We can calculate everything".....	5
1.4 Some Puzzles of Molecular Quantum Mechanics.....	10
1.5 New Points of View Are Needed.....	16

Chapter 2: On the Structure of Scientific Theories

2.1 A Good Theory should be Consistent, Confirmed and Intuitable.....	18
2.2 No Theory can be Proved to be Free from Inner Contradictions.....	23
2.3 Experiments can neither Prove a Theory True nor False.....	25
2.4 Preconceptions and Prior Conceptions.....	28
2.5 There is no Insight without Inner Pictures.....	32
2.6 Are Theories dangerous?.....	38
2.7 Summing Up.....	43

Chapter 3: Pioneer Quantum Mechanics and its Interpretation

3.1 Introductory Remarks and Preview.....	45
3.2 The Historical Development of the Hilbert-Space Model of Pioneer Quantum Mechanics.....	50
3.3# Outline of the Hilbert-Space Formalism of Pioneer Quantum Mechanics.....	66
3.4 The Copenhagen Interpretation of Pioneer Quantum Mechanics.....	98
3.5 The von Neumann-London-Bauer Interpretation of Pioneer Quantum Mechanics.....	112
3.6 The Everett Interpretation of Pioneer Quantum Mechanics.....	128
3.7 Einstein-Podolsky-Rosen Correlations.....	136
3.8 Conclusion: The Status of Pioneer Quantum Mechanics.....	147

Chapter 4: Beyond Pioneer Quantum Mechanics

4.1	Introduction.....	160
4.2	Algebraic Quantum Mechanics.....	163
4.3#	Algebraic Statistical Mechanics.....	179
4.4	The Development of Quantum Logics.....	195
4.5#	Non-Boolean Probability Theory.....	220
4.6	Interrelations and Synthesis.....	246

Chapter 5: A Framework for Theoretical Chemistry

5.1	Reevaluation for the Paradigms of Theoretical Chemistry.....	250
5.2	The Logic of Properties.....	254
5.3	Orthomodular Temporal Logic and its Ontic Interpretation.....	260
5.4	W*-Logic for Chemistry.....	267
5.5	Theory Reduction.....	279
5.6	Objects in a Quantum World.....	292

Chapter 6: Reductionism, Holism and Complementarity

6.1	The Controversy Reductionism vs. Holism.....	308
6.2	Complex Systems.....	314
6.3	Patterns in Holistic Systems.....	324
6.4	A New Look at Molecular Patterns.....	335
6.5	One Way of Telling is not Enough.....	347
