

Contents

Prolegomenon: Methods and Evidence	I
I. Aposterein and Kleptein in the Attic Orators	10
1. Theft and Embezzlement: A Comparative View	10
2. Aposterein and Kleptein: A Statement of the Problem	13
3. A Working Hypothesis	16
4. Loans	18
5. Deposits	22
6. Guardianship	25
7. Inheritance Cases without Guardianship	27
8. Extended Usages	28
9. Kleptein and the Embezzlement of Public Funds	30
II. The Athenian Theft Laws	34
1. Introduction	34
2. Evidence and Methods	38
3. The Graphe Klopes	44
a) Theft of Private Property	44
b) Theft of Public Property	49
4. ‚Flagrance‘: Arrest ep’ autophoro	52
a) The Nature and Significance of ep’ autophoro	52
b) Ep’ Autophoro and Aggravated Theft	58
5. The Dike Klopes	62
6. Theft from Public Places	69
7. Toichoruchia and Theft from Houses	72
8. Lopodutai	79
9. Accessorial Liability and Receiving Stolen Property	84
10. Subjective Elements in The Tatbestand of Klope	86
11. Conclusion	91
III. Hierosulia	93
1. Introduction	93

2. The Evidence for Hierosulia	95
3. The Evidence for Klope of Sacred Property	100
4. Provisional Summary	102
5. Comparative Evidence for Hierosulia	103
6. Other Kinds of Misappropriations of Sacred Property	111
7. Conclusion	114
 IV. Theft in Plato's Laws and Athenian Legal Practice	 116
 Bibliography	 131
Index of Classical Authors	134