

Table of Contents

1: Introduction: General	1
1.0: Introduction	1
1.1: The Quantity and Languages of Josephan Scholarship	2
2: Bibliography	4
2.0: Bibliography of Jewish Bibliographies	4
2.1: General Bibliography of Hebrew Books	4
2.2: Published Catalogues of Jewish Collections	4
2.3: Dissertations on Jewish Subjects	6
2.4: Indices of Jewish Festschriften	7
2.5: Annual Classical Bibliographies	7
2.6: Annual Biblical Bibliographies	8
2.7: Annual Jewish Bibliographies	8
2.8: Collected Bibliographies of Jewish Studies Aiming at Completeness	9
2.9: Selective Bibliographies Pertaining to Josephus through the Nineteenth Century	9
2.10: Selective Bibliographies Pertaining to Josephus for the Twentieth Century	9
2.11: Regularly Appearing Annotated Bibliographies of Hellenistic Judaism	11
2.12: Brief Selective Bibliographies of Hellenistic Judaism	12
2.13: Specialized Bibliographies in Areas Covered by or Related to Josephus: the Septuagint	12
2.14: Specialized Bibliographies: the New Testament	13
2.15: Specialized Bibliographies: Philo	14
2.16: Specialized Bibliographies: the Essenes, the Dead Sea Scrolls, the Slavonic Josephus (see also 22.10)	14
2.17: Specialized Bibliographies: Bibliographies of Individual Scholars	16
2.18: Bibliographies Devoted Specifically to Josephus	16
3: The Text	20
3.0: Editions of the Greek Text	20
3.1: Transmission of the Text	21
3.2: Studies of Individual Manuscripts and of Early Printed Editions	24
3.3: Textual Criticism	25
4: Translations into Modern Languages	28
4.0: Translations (with or without Commentaries) into English	28
4.1: Translations (with or without Commentaries) into French	32
4.2: Translations (with or without Commentaries) into German	33
4.3: Translations (with or without Commentaries) into Hebrew	34
4.4: Translations (with or without Commentaries) into Italian	36
4.5: Translations (with or without Commentaries) into Spanish	36
4.6: Translations (with or without Commentaries) into Other Languages: Arabic, Czech, Dutch, Modern Greek, Hungarian, Japanese, Polish, Portuguese, Russian, Serbian	37

5: The Latin and Syriac Versions	40
5.0: The Latin Versions: Introduction	40
5.1: The Name Hegesippus	40
5.2: The Text of Hegesippus	40
5.3: Authorship of Hegesippus	41
5.4: The Content of Hegesippus and Its Relation to Josippon	42
5.5: The Text of the Latin Version Made under Cassiodorus' Direction	43
5.6: Individual Manuscripts and Early Printed Editions of the Latin Version	44
5.7: Authorship of the Latin Josephus	45
5.8: Importance of the Latin Version	46
5.9: The Syriac Version	47
6: The Slavonic Version	48
6.0: The Text of the Slavonic Version and Translations Thereof	48
6.1: The Language of the Slavonic Version	49
6.2: The Date, Source, Authorship, and Purpose of the Slavonic Josephus	49
6.3: Problems of Genuineness, Omissions, and Additions of the Slavonic Version	51
6.4: The Slavonic Version, the Dead Sea Scrolls, and the Essenes	55
6.5: Translations Dependent upon the Slavonic Version	56
7: Josippon	57
7.0: Josippon (Josefon, Yosephon, Josephon) (the Hebrew Version of the 'Jewish War'): General	57
7.1: The Text of Josippon	58
7.2: Translations of Josippon	61
7.3: Authorship and Authenticity of Josippon	62
7.4: The Date and Place of Composition of Josippon	62
7.5: The Sources of Josippon	66
7.6: The Content and Outlook of Josippon	71
7.7: The Arabic and Ethiopic Versions of Josippon	73
8: Josephus' Life	75
8.0: Josephus' Life: General	75
8.1: Sources for Josephus' Life	76
8.2: Josephus' Family, Education, and Early Life	79
8.3: Josephus' Appointment as Military General in Galilee	84
8.4: Josephus' Conduct as Military General in Galilee	87
8.5: Josephus' Surrender at Jotapata	88
8.6: Josephus' Prophecy to Vespasian	93
8.7: Josephus and Justus of Tiberias	96
9: General Accounts of Josephus	99
9.0: Older Books and Articles on Josephus in General	99
9.1: Book-length Studies (1937-1980) Dealing with Josephus in General	104
9.2: Shorter General Accounts of Josephus' Life and Works in Encyclopedias	107
9.3: Shorter General Accounts of Josephus' Life and Works in Books Other than Ency- clopedias	112
9.4: Josephus' Conception of Historiography in General	117
10: Josephus' Paraphrase of the Bible	121
10.0: Josephus' Treatment of the Biblical Period: the Problem of Josephus' Modifications of the Bible Generally	121
10.1: The Nature of Josephus' Modifications of the Bible in General	125

10.2: Josephus' Biblical Text in General	130
10.3: Josephus' Use of the Septuagint and of Targumim for the Hexateuch	131
10.4: The Canon of the Bible	134
10.5: Josephus' Version of Genesis for the pre-Abrahamic Period	139
10.6: Josephus' Portrayal of Abraham, Melchisedek, and Isaac	143
10.7: Joseph	148
10.8: Moses and the Exodus	149
10.9: Manetho, the Hyksos, and the Exodus	157
10.10: The Sojourn of the Israelites in the Wilderness	161
10.11: Joshua and Judges	163
10.12: Ruth	164
10.13: Josephus' Biblical Text for Samuel through I Maccabees	165
10.14: Josephus on Specific Passages in Samuel and Kings	170
10.15: Daniel	178
10.16: The Prophetic Books	181
10.17: Ezra and Nehemiah: General (see 11.1)	183
10.18: Particular Passages in Ezra and Nehemiah (see 11.1)	186
10.19: Esther	189
11: Josephus as Historian of the Post-Biblical Period (until 63 B.C.E.): General Issues	192
11.0: Josephus' Treatment of the Post-Biblical Period: General	192
11.1: Josephus' Treatment of the Persian Period	199
11.2: Josephus' Treatment of the Hellenistic Period: General	200
12: Josephus as Historian of the Post-Biblical Period: Specific Events	207
12.0: Josephus on Alexander the Great	207
12.1: Josephus' Version of the 'Letter of Aristeas'	208
12.2: Early Seleucid History	210
12.3: Antiochus III	212
12.4: The Tobiads	215
12.5: The Relationship between the Jews and the Spartans	217
12.6: Josephus' Version of I Maccabees	219
12.7: Josephus' Relationship to II Maccabees	225
12.8: Antiochus IV (Epiphanes) and the Background of the Maccabean Revolt	226
12.9: Mattathias and Judah Maccabee	233
12.10: Antiochus V, VI, and VII	234
12.11: The Rulers of Egypt during the Third, Second, and First Centuries B.C.E.	236
12.12: Anti-Semitism in Ptolemaic Egypt	237
12.13: The Hasmonean Kings Generally	241
12.14: The Alliance of the Hasmoneans with the Romans	245
12.15: The Kittim of the Dead Sea Scrolls: Seleucids or Romans?	245
12.16: Jonathan the Hasmonean	247
12.17: Simon the Hasmonean	248
12.18: John Hyrcanus	249
12.19: Alexander Jannaeus	251
13: Josephus as Historian of the Roman Period (from Pompey until Herod)	259
13.0: The Roman Period: General	259
13.1: Anti-Semitism during the Roman Period	266
13.2: Josephus on Roman Institutions	267
13.3: Roman Taxation on Jews	267
13.4: Jews in the Roman Army	267
13.5: Hyrcanus II and Pompey	268

13.6: The Partition of Judaea by Gabinius	272
13.7: The Documents in 'Antiquities', Book 14	273
13.8: Antigonos	276
13.9: Antipater	277
14: Herod	278
14.0: Herod: General Treatments	278
14.1: Herod: the Numismatic Evidence	287
14.2: Herod's Appearance	288
14.3: Herod's Title 'the Great'	288
14.4: The Chronology of Herod's Reign	289
14.5: Herod's Trial before the Sanhedrin	289
14.6: Herod's Legal Position vis-à-vis Augustus and the Roman Empire	290
14.7: Herod and Babylonian Jewry	291
14.8: Herod as Administrator	292
14.9: Herod's Military Colony of Batanaea	292
14.10: The Place of Sports in Herod's Politics (see also 20.9)	292
14.11: Herod's Building Program	293
14.12: Herod, the Temple, and the High Priesthood	295
14.13: Herod's Trial against His Sons	296
14.14: Herod and Mariamne	296
14.15: Herod and Cleopatra	297
14.16: Herod as Messiah	297
14.17: Herod's Death	298
14.18: The Aftermath of Herod's Death	299
14.19: The Herodian Family in General	300
14.20: Phasaël and Archelaus	301
14.21: Herod Antipas and Herodias	301
15: The Period after Herod until the Outbreak of the War against the Romans	304
15.0: Josephus on Parthian Affairs (Antiquities 18. 39–52, etc.)	304
15.1: The Autonomous Jewish State of Anilaeus and Asinaeus under the Parthians	306
15.2: Josephus on Arab Affairs (cf. 25.21)	307
15.3: The Ituraeans	308
15.4: Josephus on Petty States in Asia Minor and Vicinity	308
15.5: The Emperor Augustus and the Jews	309
15.6: The Emperor Tiberius and the Jews	309
15.7: The Roman Procurators before Pontius Pilate	311
15.8: Pontius Pilate: General	312
15.9: The Episode of Pilate's Introduction of the Emperor's Standards into Jerusalem	316
15.10: Pilate: the New Inscription	317
15.11: The Procurators after Pilate	320
15.12: Agrippa I	323
15.13: Gaius Caligula and Claudius	326
15.14: The Citizenship of the Alexandrian Jews and Claudius' Edict	331
15.15: Josephus on Philo and His Family	338
15.16: The Status of the Jews in Syria, Especially Antioch	338
15.17: The Jews of Asia Minor	339
15.18: The Status of the Jews in Cyrene	340
15.19: The Jews of Rome	341
15.20: Agrippa II and Berenice	341
15.21: Izates and Adiabene (see also 24.1)	343
15.22: Nero	345

16: The War against the Romans	346
16.0: Josephus as a Source for the Great Jewish Revolt against the Romans (66–74 C.E.)	346
16.1: Chronology of Events of the War	350
16.2: The Coins as a Source for the Jewish War in General (see also 25.25)	350
16.3: Numismatic Evidence for the Jewish War in Galilee (see also 25.25)	351
16.4: The Causes and Goals of the War	351
16.5: Babylonian Jewry and the War	356
16.6: The Progress of the War	356
16.7: The Siege of Jerusalem	361
16.8: The Burning of the Temple	363
16.9: The Population of Palestine and of Jerusalem in Particular in the First Century	366
16.10: Military Aspects of the War and in Josephus in General	370
16.11: Vespasian and Titus	371
16.12: The Arch of Titus	375
16.13: Domitian	377
17: Special Problems in Connection with Josephus' Works	378
17.0: Special Problems in Connection with Josephus' Works: the 'War'	378
17.1: Special Problems in Connection with Josephus' Works: the 'Life'	380
17.2: Special Problems in Connection with Josephus' Works: 'Against Apion'	384
17.3: Proposed Works	387
17.4: Doubtful and Spurious Works	389
17.5: Falsifications in Josephus	391
18: Josephus' Sources	392
18.0: Josephus' Sources: General	392
18.1: Herodotus and Thucydides	394
18.2: Other Classical Greek Writers of the Fifth Century B.C.E.	394
18.3: Menander	394
18.4: Clearchus of Soli and Hermippus of Smyrna	395
18.5: Hecataeus and Pseudo-Hecataeus	396
18.6: Berossus	400
18.7: Demetrius of Phalerum	400
18.8: Aristobulus	400
18.9: Alexander Polyhistor	401
18.10: Eupolemus	401
18.11: Artapanus	402
18.12: Nicolaus of Damascus	402
18.13: Strabo	406
18.14: Dionysius of Halicarnassus	407
18.15: 'Longinus'	408
18.16: The Testament (Assumption) of Moses	409
18.17: Philo (see also 2.15)	410
18.18: Pseudo-Philo's 'Biblical Antiquities'	418
18.19: Sallust	419
19: Josephus' Views on the Jewish Religion	420
19.0: Josephus' Outlook on Judaism: General	420
19.1: G-d	423
19.2: The Decalogue	428
19.3: Demons	429
19.4: Magic	429
19.5: Dreams	430

19.6: The Soul	430
19.7: Fate and Free Will	431
19.8: Suffering	434
19.9: Prayer	435
19.10: The Synagogue	436
19.11: Baptism	437
19.12: The Priests Generally	437
19.13: The Description of the Temple	438
19.14: The Warning Inscription of the Temple	444
19.15: The Half-Shekel Tax of the Temple and Other Donations	447
19.16: Excavations of the Temple Area (see also 25.12)	447
19.17: The High Priesthood	448
19.18: The Clothing and Stones of the High Priest	457
19.19: The Effects of the Destruction of the Temple	458
19.20: The Temple at Leontopolis	459
19.21: The Sanhedrin	463
19.22: Rabbinic Sages: Onias (Honi) and Pollio (Abtalion)	467
19.23: Prophecy	469
19.24: False Prophets	476
19.25: Miracles	477
19.26: Josephus' Philosophy of History	480
19.27: Josephus' Political Theory	481
19.28: The Chosen People	482
19.29: Josephus' Philosophy of Education	482
19.30: Josephus' Attitude toward the Land of Israel	482
19.31: Resurrection	483
19.32: The Messiah and Eschatology in General	484
19.33: The Messianic Background of the Jewish Revolt	489
19.34: Josephus' Attitude toward Women	491
20: Josephus' Views on Halakhah (Jewish Law)	492
20.0: Josephus' Attitude toward Halakhah (Jewish Law): General	492
20.1: Courts, Witnesses, and Punishments	498
20.2: Religious Law: the Priesthood and Other Laws of Ritual	500
20.3: The Calendar	502
20.4: The Sabbath	503
20.5: Sabbatical Years and Jubilees	506
20.6: Festivals	507
20.7: Sacrifices and Ritual Banquets	511
20.8: Idolatry	512
20.9: Athletics (see also 14.10)	515
20.10: Attitude toward Foreign Cults	516
20.11: Attitude toward Other Philosophies	519
20.12: Law of Persons: Slavery, Charity, Marriage, Abortion, Divorce	519
20.13: Theft, Kidnapping, Agency	522
20.14: Suicide	524
20.15: Treatment of Animals	526
21: Religious Movements: the Samaritans	528
21.0: Religious Movements: the Samaritans: Josephus as a Source	528
21.1: The Origin of the Samaritans	533
21.2: The Building of the Samaritan Temple	537
21.3: Events in the History of the Samaritans	539

22: The Pharisees and Divergent Jewish Sects	542
22.0: The Jewish Sects: General	542
22.1: The Views of the Sects: Fate and Prophecy	549
22.2: The Pharisees: General	551
22.3: The Pharisees in the 'War' and in the 'Antiquities'	560
22.4: The Name, Definition, and Origin of the Pharisees	562
22.5: The Beliefs and Practices of the Pharisees	566
22.6: The History of the Pharisees: Opposition to Hellenism, to the Hasmonean Kings, and to the Great War against Rome	569
22.7: The Relationship of the Pharisees to Apocalyptic Groups and to the Dead Sea Sect	572
22.8: The Influence of the Pharisees (see also 22.3)	574
22.9: The Sadducees	579
22.10: The Essenes in Josephus: Bibliography (see also 2.16)	580
22.11: The Texts Pertaining to the Essenes in Josephus	580
22.12: Josephus' Account of the Essenes: General	582
22.13: The Authenticity of Josephus' Account of the Essenes	586
22.14: Comparison of the Accounts of the Essenes in the 'War' and in the 'Antiquities'	587
22.15: The Etymology of the Name Essenes	588
22.16: The Origin of the Essenes	590
22.17: Josephus' Relationship to Other Sources for the Essenes: Philo, the 'Sibylline Oracles', Hippolytus (see also 27.11)	592
22.18: Beliefs and Practices of the Essenes: General	594
22.19: The Attitude of the Essenes toward the Temple and Sacrifices	597
22.20: Ritual and Practices of the Essenes: Initiation, Baths, Purity, Asceticism, Prayer, Work	600
22.21: The Meals of the Essenes	605
22.22: The Oaths of the Essenes	607
22.23: The Pacifism of the Essenes	609
22.24: The History of the Essenes	610
22.25: The Relationship of the Essenes to Other Movements: the Herodians	612
22.26: The Essenes and Hermeticism, Gnosticism, the Therapeutae, and the Essenes of Ephesus	614
22.27: The Essenes and the Dacians	616
22.28: The Essenes and the Magi	617
22.29: The Relationship of the Essenes to the Dead Sea Sect	618
22.30: The Relationship of the Essenes to the Christians	633
22.31: The Zealots: General	637
22.32: The Name and Origin of the Zealots	642
22.33: The Relationship of the Maccabees to the Zealots	646
22.34: The Views of the Zealots	647
22.35: The Relationship of the Zealots to the Essenes and to the Dead Sea Sect	648
22.36: The Relationship of the Zealots to Jesus and to Early Christianity	651
22.37: The Sicarii, the Fourth Philosophy, and the Zealots	655
22.38: The Galilaeans	667
22.39: The ἡρησῆς	670
22.40: Individual Revolutionary Leaders: Judas of Galilee, John of Gischala, Simon bar Giora, Menahem	670
23: Christianity	673
23.0: Josephus on John the Baptist	673
23.1: The 'Testimonium Flavianum' on Jesus: Bibliography	679
23.2: The 'Testimonium Flavianum': General	680
23.3: Josephus' Sources for the 'Testimonium Flavianum'	691

23.4: Josephus' Motives for Inserting the "Testimonium"	691
23.5: The "Testimonium Flavianum": "He Was the Messiah"	693
23.6: The "Testimonium Flavianum", Origen, and Eusebius	695
23.7: The "Testimonium Flavianum": the Context	696
23.8: The "Testimonium Flavianum": Its Language	697
23.9: Jesus' Appearance according to the Original "Testimonium"	699
23.10: The Arabic and Syriac Versions of the "Testimonium Flavianum"	700
23.11: Jesus Son of Ananias	703
23.12: Josephus on James	704
23.13: Josephus' Relationship to the New Testament: General	707
23.14: The Census of Quirinius in Josephus and in Luke	709
23.15: Theudas in Josephus and in Acts	717
23.16: Other Parallels between Josephus and Luke-Acts	719
23.17: Parallels between Josephus and Other Books of the New Testament	723
24: Proselytes and 'Sympathizers'	726
24.0: Proselytes in Josephus: General	726
24.1: The Conversion of King Izates of Adiabene to Judaism (see also 15.21)	730
24.2: Jewish 'Sympathizers' in Josephus	732
25: Josephus and Archaeology	735
25.0: Josephus and the Geography, Topography, and Archaeology of the Land of Israel: General	735
25.1: Josephus and Archaeology: Asophon	740
25.2: Caesarea	740
25.3: Callirrhoe	744
25.4: Caphareccho	744
25.5: Gaba	745
25.6: Gerasa	745
25.7: Herodium	746
25.8: Jericho	747
25.9: Jerusalem: General	748
25.10: The Walls of Jerusalem	753
25.11: The Antonia in Jerusalem	757
25.12: Other Sites in Jerusalem (see also 19.16)	758
25.13: Machaerus	761
25.14: Masada before YADIN's Excavations of 1963-65	763
25.15: YADIN's Excavations of Masada	765
25.16: The Talmud's Silence about Masada	769
25.17: Josephus' Reliability as a Source for Masada: General	772
25.18: Josephus' Reliability as a Source for Masada: the Speeches of Eleazar ben Jair	777
25.19: Josephus' Reliability as a Source for Masada: the Suicide	779
25.20: The Date of the Capture of Masada	789
25.21: Josephus and Archaeology: the Nabataeans	790
25.22: Tiberias	791
25.23: Other Sites in Israel and Transjordan: Akbara (Acchabaron), Alexandrion, Amathous, 'Arâq el-Emîr, Azekus (Azeka), Ascalon, Baniyas, Besara, Emmaus, Gader, Gamla (Gamala), Geba (Gibeah), Gilgal, Golan, Hyrcania, Jotapata, Machpelah, Mambre, Meiron, Petra, Ptolemais (Akko), Salem, Samaria, Sennabris, Sepphoris, Mount Sinai, Valley of the Cilicians	792
25.24: Sites in Lebanon and in Syria	798
25.25: Josephus and Numismatic Evidence (see also 16.2 and 16.3)	799

26: Vocabulary and Style	803
26.0: Dictionaries and Concordances to Josephus	803
26.1: Josephus' Vocabulary: Individual Words	806
26.2: Proper Names in Josephus	815
26.3: Josephus' Statements about His Knowledge of Greek	817
26.4: Josephus' Language and Style	819
26.5: Speeches and Letters in Josephus	822
26.6: Dramatic Elements in Josephus	825
26.7: Symbolism, Allegory, and Metaphor in Josephus	826
26.8: References to Poetry and to Music	826
26.9: Josephus' Literary Assistants	827
26.10: Josephus' Grammar	830
26.11: Hebrew as Josephus' Ancestral Language	831
26.12: Aramaisms in the 'War'	832
26.13: Aramaic Sources for the 'Antiquities'	834
26.14: Josephus' Knowledge of Latin (see also 26.4)	836
26.15: The Alleged Second Edition of the 'Antiquities'	837
27: Josephus' Influence until the Twentieth Century	839
27.0: Josephus' Influence: General	839
27.1: Parallels between Josephus and the Talmud	840
27.2: Josephus and Tacitus	840
27.3: Parallels between Josephus and Suetonius	843
27.4: Parallels between Josephus and Lucian	843
27.5: Parallels between Josephus and Apuleius	843
27.6: Parallels between Josephus and Dio Cassius	843
27.7: Josephus' Influence on Porphyry	844
27.8: Libanius	845
27.9: The Church Fathers in General	845
27.10: The Greek Hegesippus	846
27.11: Hippolytus (see also 22.17)	846
27.12: Origen	847
27.13: Theophilus, Eusebius, John Chrysostom, and Pseudo-Kaisarios	848
27.14: Minucius Felix and Tertullian	849
27.15: Jerome	850
27.16: Augustine	851
27.17: Cassiodorus	851
27.18: Coptic Literature	851
27.19: Armenian Literature	852
27.20: Syriac Literature	852
27.21: Josephus' Influence during the Middle Ages Generally	853
27.22: The Alexander Legend	854
27.23: Particular Medieval Latin Authors in Western Europe: Bede, Rabanus Maurus, Richard of St. Victor, Peter Comestor, Fulcher of Chartres	855
27.24: Medieval Greek Authors in Eastern Europe: George Hamartolos, Anonymus 'De obsidione toleranda', Nikephoros Kallistos Xanthopoulos, 'Palaea Historica'	856
27.25: The Medieval Legend of Josephus the Physician	858
27.26: Josephus' Influence on Renaissance Figures (Nicolas de Lyre, Isaac Abrabanel) and in the Reformation and post-Reformation Periods	859
27.27: English Literature: General	861
27.28: The Herod Theme in English Literature	863
27.29: French Literature	863
27.30: Italian Literature	864

27.31: Spanish Literature	865
27.32: The Miscellaneous Influence of Josephus: the 'Josephus Problem' in Mathematics	868
27.33: Censorship of Josephus	869
27.34: The Influence of Josephus on Art and Music	869
27.35: The Influence of the Slavonic Version of the 'War'	871
27.36: The Influence of Josippon	872
27.37: The Influence of the Arabic and Ethiopic Versions of Josippon	874
28: Josephus' Influence on Modern Contemporary Literature	876
28.0: The Influence of Josephus on Modern Fiction: General	876
28.1: Modern Fiction: FEUCHTWANGER	876
28.2: Contemporary Novels about Herod	878
28.3: Contemporary Novels about Masada	878
28.4: Other Modern Fiction	879
28.5: Contemporary Drama about Herod	880
28.6: Contemporary Poetry and Drama about Masada	880
28.7: Other Modern Drama	881
28.8: Films	882
28.9: Contemporary Politics: the Masada Complex	882
29: Desiderata	884
29.0: Summary and Desiderata in the Study of Josephus: Bibliography	884
29.1: Desiderata: the Tools for Scholarship in the Field of Hellenistic-Roman Jewish History	885
29.2: Desiderata: the Text	886
29.3: Desiderata: the Latin, Slavonic, and Rumanian Versions; Josippon and the Arabic Version of Josippon	887
29.4: Desiderata: Accounts of Josephus as an Historian	888
29.5: Desiderata: Josephus and the Bible	890
29.6: Desiderata: Spurious Works	891
29.7: Desiderata: Josephus and Halakhah	891
29.8: Desiderata: Josephus' Language, Style, and Literary Techniques	892
29.9: Desiderata: the Influence of Josephus on Ancient, Medieval, and Renaissance Literature	892
29.10: Desiderata: the Influence of Josephus on Modern Literature	894
29.11: Desiderata: the Influence of Josephus on Modern Historiography	895
29.12: Desiderata: the Influence of Josephus on Art and Music	896
29.13: Desiderata: the Influence of the Slavonic Version of Josippon, and of the Arabic and Ethiopic Versions of Josippon	896
Addenda	899
Indices	977
I. Index of References	977
A. Josephus	977
1. 'War'	977
2. 'Antiquities'	984
3. 'Life'	996
4. 'Against Apion'	997
B. Ancient and Medieval Versions of Josephus	999
1. Hegesippus	999
2. The Latin Translation Ascribed to Cassiodorus	999

3. The Slavonic Version of the 'War'	999
4. Josippon	999
5. The Syriac Version of Book 6 of the 'War'	999
C. Hebrew Scriptures and Septuagint	999
D. Other Versions in Greek, Latin, and Syriac of the Hebrew Scriptures	1002
E. Apocrypha	1002
F. Pseudepigrapha	1003
G. Dead Sea Scrolls	1004
H. Samaritan Writings	1004
I. New Testament	1005
J. Greco-Jewish and Greco-Samaritan Writers (except Philo and Josephus)	1006
K. Philo and Pseudo-Philo	1007
L. Rabbinic Writings	1008
1. Mishnah	1008
2. Tosefta	1009
3. Babylonian Talmud	1009
4. Jerusalem Talmud	1010
5. Midrashim	1011
6. Targumim	1011
7. Other Rabbinic Works	1011
M. Pagan Greek Writers	1012
N. Pagan Latin Writers	1014
O. Tablets, Inscriptions, Papyri, Prosopography, Manuscripts, and Laws	1016
P. Early Christian Writers in Greek	1016
Q. Early Christian Writers in Latin	1018
R. Medieval Writers in Arabic, Armenian, Ethiopic, Russian, and Syriac	1018
S. Post-Talmudic Hebrew Writers until the Eighteenth Century	1019
T. Byzantine Greek Writers	1019
U. Medieval Latin Writers	1020
V. Modern Literary Figures	1020
II. Index of Words	1022
A. Greek	1022
B. Latin	1028
C. Hebrew and Aramaic	1029
D. Other Languages: Arabic, Egyptian, Hyksos, Parthian (Persian), Phoenician, Rumanian, Sumerian, Syriac, Thracian, Indo-European	1030
III. Index of Names of Modern Writers	1030