

Contents

Preface	xi
Introduction: Globalization, Mediated Practice and Social Space: Assessing the Means and Metaphysics of Online Territories	I
MIYASE CHRISTENSEN, ANDRÉ JANSSON AND CHRISTIAN CHRISTENSEN

PART I: EVERYDAY INTERSECTIONS

1. The Everyday War: Iraq, YouTube and the Banal Spectacle	17
CHRISTIAN CHRISTENSEN
2. The Domestication of Online Pornography: How Cyberporn Found a Home in the American Home	31
JONATHAN LILLIE
3. Fans Online: Affective Media Consumption and Production in the Age of Convergence	49
CORNEL SANDVOSS

4. The Place of Internet Gambling: Presence, Vice, and Domestic Space 75
HOLLY KRUSE
5. Spamculture: The Informational Politics of Functional Trash 89
KRISTOFFER GANSING

PART II: CITIZENSHIP, PUBLIC SPACE AND COMMUNICATION ONLINE

6. Mediapolis, Human (In)Security and Citizenship: Communication and Glocal Development Challenges in the Digital Era 113
THOMAS TUFTTE
7. The Rise and Fall of Online Feminism 132
LIESBET VAN ZOONEN
8. Social Movement Web Use in Theory and Practice: A Content Analysis 147
LAURA STEIN
9. Identity and Surveillance Play in Hybrid Space 171
DAVID PHILLIPS
10. Hacking, Jamming, Boycotting, and Out-Foxing the Commercial
Music Market-Makers 185
PATRICK BURKART

PART III: TRANSNATIONAL/TRANSLOCAL NEXUSES

11. Diaspora, Mediated Communication and Space: A Transnational Framework to Study Identity 205
MYRIA GEORGIOU
12. Online Social Media, Communicative Practice and Complicit
Surveillance in Transnational Contexts 222
MIYASE CHRISTENSEN
13. Cosmopolitan Capsules: Mediated Networking and Social Control in Expatriate Spaces 239
ANDRÉ JANSSON

14. Reconfiguring Diasporic-Ethnic Identities: The Web as Technology of Representation and Resistance	256
OLGA G. BAILEY
Afterword	273
DAVID MORLEY
Contributors	291
Index	295