

CONTENTS

I	The Master Builder and His Cathedral	4
II	The Human Face of Christ and the Reevaluation of the Individual	6
III	Art and Science	7
IV	The Charisma of the Cathedral of Reims	8
V	The Background of the Naumburg Master Part 1: Castle of Coucy, West Portals of the Cathedral of Noyon and Works in Lorraine	11
VI	The Background of the Naumburg Master Part 2: Rood Screen of the Cathedral of Mainz and the Templar Chapel in Iben	12
VII	The Cultural Landscape along the Saale and Unstrut Rivers in the High Middle Ages	14
VIII	The West Choir of the Cathedral of Naumburg – the Historical Influences	15
IX	Memorials to Donors and Portraits of Rulers	16
X	Architecture, Pictorial Art and Decoration of the West Choir in Naumburg	18
XI	The Naumburg Donor Figures and the Chivalrous Courtly Culture	21
XII	The Stained Glass Windows of the Naumburg West Choir in their Stylistic Context	23
XIII	Concept and Purpose of the West Choir in Naumburg	25
XIV	Rood Screens in Cathedrals in France in the First Half of the 13th Century	27
XV	Sculptural Design and Cathedral Workshops	28
XVI	The Architecture of the West Choir in Naumburg and the East Choir in Meissen	29
XVII	Art in the Period of Louis IX (St. Louis) – A New Courtly Ideal in France	30