

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction Barbara Beyerbach	ix
1. Social Justice Education Through the Arts Barbara Beyerbach	1
2. Learning about the Farmworkers and the Landless Rural Workers Movements Through the Arts Tania Ramalho and Leah Russell	15
3. Art and Change in the AfroReggae Cultural Group Leah Russell	35
4. Media Literacy and Social Justice in a Visual World Jacquelyn S. Kibbey	50
5. Enlivening the Curriculum Through Imagination Mary Harrell	62
6. Photography and Social Justice: Preservice Teachers and the Ocularized, Urban Other Dennis Parsons	70

7. Creating Student Activists Through Community Participatory Documentaries Jane Winslow	88
8. Art Class at the Onondaga Nation School: A Practice of the Good Mind Jennifer Kagan and Chris Capella	104
9. Indigenous Activism: Art, Identity, and the Politics of the Quincentenary Lisa Roberts Seppi	113
10. Activist Art and Pedagogy: The Dinner Party Curriculum Project Carrie Nordlund, Peg Speirs, and Marilyn Stewart, with Judy Chicago	134
11. Acting Up In and Out of Class: Student Social Justice Activism in the Tertiary General Education, Fine Arts, and Performing Arts Curriculum Lisa Langlois	154
12. Interactive Social Media and the Art of Telling Stories: Strategies for Social Justice Through Osw3go.net 2010: Racism on Campus Patricia E. Clark, Ulises A. Mejias, Peter Cavana, Daniel Herson, and Sharon M. Strong	171
13. In the Grey : Finding Beauty Without Labels Barbara Stout	186
14. The Art of Growing Food Suzanne Bellamy	193
15. Activist Art in Social Justice Pedagogy Barbara Beyerbach and Tania Ramalho	202
About the Authors	218