

Anna Haebich and Baden Offord (eds)

Landscapes of
Exile

Once Perilous, Now Safe

PETER LANG

Contents

Preface	ix
 BADEN OFFORD and ANNA HAEBICH Introduction: Landscapes of Exile – ‘Once Perilous, Now Safe’	 1
 BADEN OFFORD Landscapes of Exile (and Narratives on the Trauma of Belonging)	 5
 PATRICIA CLARKE A Paradox of Exile: Rosa Praed’s Lifelines to her Australian Past	 19
 SUSAN BALLYN Brutality versus Common Sense: The ‘Mutiny Ships’, the Tottenham and the Chapman	 31
 JUDITH GRBICH The Road to Jawi Country: Exilic Subjects and Legal Landscapes	 43
 MELISSA LUCASHENKO All My Relations: Being and Belonging in Byron Shire	 61
 WILLA McDONALD Dis/Connections: Expressions of Belonging in Non-Indigenous Australian Non-fiction	 69

PETER READ INTERVIEWS DENNIS FOLEY Whose Landscape? Who's Exiled?	85
KIM SATCHELL Reveries of the Solitary Islands: From Sensuous Geography to Ecological Sensibility	97
JOHANNA KIJAS Layers of Belonging in a 'Sea Change' Landscape: Stories of Look At Me Now Headland	115
DIANNE SCHWERDT The 'Third Space' as Void: Exile and Self-destruction in Eva Sallis's The Marsh Birds	135
DEBORAH BIRD ROSE Journeys: Distance, Proximity and Death	149
J.V. D'CRUZ and WILLIAM STEELE Recognising Home in David Martin's Additive Exile: The Necessary Other that Puts Us into Relation	157
ROB GARBUTT Towards an Ethics of Location	175
ANNA HAEBICH Un-settling White Australia: The Significance of Going Home	193
JANIE CONWAY-HERRON This Whispering in My Heart	211
BEV HENWOOD For the Term of their Natural Lives: Twenty-first-century Exile from Australia	221

MICHAEL HANNAN

Two Artistic Interpretations of the Eliza Fraser Exile
Narrative

239

ADRIEN K. WING and HISHAM A. KASSIM

Spirit Injury, Exile, and the State of Palestine

249

Contributors

263

Index

269