

On Memory

An Interdisciplinary Approach

Doron Mendels (ed.)

Peter Lang

Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Introduction	9
1 ALEXANDER YAKOBSON Us and Them: Empire, Memory and Identity in Claudius’ Speech on Bringing Gauls into the Roman Senate	19
2 ARYE EDREI Holocaust Memorial: A Paradigm of Competing Memories in the Religious and Secular Societies in Israel	37
3 JEFFREY ANDREW BARASH Analyzing Collective Memory	101
4 YORAM BILU Saint Impresarios in Israel as Agents of Memory	117
5 NILI COHEN Memory and Forgetfulness in Law	135
6 DAN DINER From Society to Memory: Reflections on a Paradigm Shift	149
7 IDAN SEGEV What Changes in the Brain When We Learn	165
8 BIANCA KÜHNEL Memory and Architecture: Visual Constructions of the Jewish Holy Land	177

9	DAN LAOR How Are We Expected to Remember the Holocaust? Szenes versus Kasztner	195
10	AMIA LIEBLICH The Second Generation of Kfar Etzion: A Study of Collective Memory	213
11	TAMAR LIEBES “Hear O Israel”: Radio, Nationbuilding and Collective Memory	231
12	DORON MENDELS A Model of Public Memory and a note on Günter Grass’s Crabwalk	255
13	MOSHE SHOKEID Anthropological Texts: Mirrored Memories of Researchers and Subjects	275
14	JONATHAN H. SLAVIN Personal Agency and the Possession of Memory	299
15	GABRIEL ZIMMERMAN AND HERMONA SOREQ Remembering Trauma: The Role of Acetylcholinesterase in the Formation of Fear Memories	319
16	Yael ZERUBAVEL Antiquity and the Renewal Paradigm: Strategies of Representation and Mnemonic Practices in Israeli Culture	331
	Notes on Contributors	349
	Index	355