

Table of Contents

FIRST SECTION	14
TOPO's introduction and explanation	14
Disclaimer	15
Copyrights reserved.....	16
Acknowledgements.....	16
My message to family and friends	17
New life in Sydney.....	18
And another new story begins	18
The good oil by Peter Fenton OAM	19
Two very unique scrum poems.....	21
FOREWORD	26
PROLOGUE by Ray Williams, OBE	30
Career CV	32
TOPO's Tribute to Ray Williams, OBE.....	33
THE ASSIGNMENT.....	36
INTRODUCTION.....	40
Some history to consider	43
TOPO's Argentine Perspective	47
The Argentine coordinated shove system.....	49
Principles of the scrum	51
Obstacles	53
Tips on training the scrum.....	54
The Author.....	54
Acknowledgements.....	55
Carlos 'VECO' Villegas.....	56
Cordoba, Argentina	57
The Wallabies 1984-1987	59
The Australian account	63
Preamble	67
Coaching its responsibilities, guiding and mentoring roles	67

Training practices	69
Principles and success formulae	70
Adapting to change.....	72
Organisation, leadership and teamwork.....	73
Social loafing	75
Stakeholder responsibility.....	78
Applying discretion	79
Referees keeping up	80
Onto some personal benchmarks.....	80
The pushover tries.....	81
So how does it happen?	82
Scrummaging efficiency pre-conditions.....	83
THE FUNDAMENTALS AND MECHANICS OF THE SCRUM	88
The Nitty Gritty.....	88
Intrinsic qualities to take into account	88
The scrum is NOT just the restart of the game!	90
Roles and positions	91
Front row	92
Second row/lock.....	93
Back row	93
Flankers/breakaway	94
Number eight.....	95
Respect for law	95
Definitions and Points of Law (2005-2013)	96
TOPO's guiding lights: The 11 vital beacons.....	98
The preparation	101
Assembly	101
Front row's distance.....	102
Feet positioning	102
Good tips for efficient and effective scrummaging	102
Force transmission systems.....	103
A. Straight forward push (for beginners)	104
B. Outward directed push (for intermediate levels)	104
C. Inward directed push (advanced)	104

Hooking Feet.....	105
Binding and grips.....	106
Front row binding (on each other)	106
Front row binding (on the opposition).....	107
The second row	109
Second rowers binding to the front row	109
Around the hips bind	109
The crotch bind	110
Number eight.....	111
The Flankers.....	111
Body position.....	111
Leg positions and angles	113
Body check list.....	114
The engagement	114
The laws.....	114
Distance	116
Great importance of the engagement.....	117
The clusters strategy and problem solving.....	118
Physics and biomechanics.....	119
Attack and counterattack between the front rows.....	120
Ball put-in	122
Our loose head (our put-in)	123
Our tight head (opposition's put-in)	129
The body position and adjustments.....	131
Edging manoeuvring	132
Props' outside leg foot position	133
Hooking or pushing?.....	134
Pushing and timing	134
The technique of hooking	136
The hooker's responsibility is to:.....	137
Hooker in a position to hook.....	137
Striking after the put-in.....	138
Own put-in	138
Opposition's put-in	138

When to use these hooking options.....	139
The channelling.....	140
A quick revision.....	141
TACTICS – TRAPS – TROUBLESHOOTING.....	144
Tactics	144
Options	145
Traps	150
Troubleshooting guidelines.....	151
A friendly warning for players, coaches, teachers and parents.....	158
SCRUM PRACTICES AND PHYSICAL CONDITIONING.....	162
Scrum training.....	162
A brief five year review of world scrummaging	162
Practice reminders.....	167
A proposed new scrum proficiency assessment centre	167
Scrum machines.....	168
Live scrum practices.....	170
Attire, uniform and gear.....	171
Training sessions.....	172
Scrum conditioning.....	172
Strength training.....	175
Body building.....	175
Sports conditioning.....	175
How to avoid losing mobility.....	176
Strength conditioning.....	176
Advanced	177
PLAYER SAFETY AND SCRUM SAFETY.....	180
Spinal injury prevention and successful scrum management	180
Dealing with collapsed or collapsing scrums.....	180
Principles of a sound injury prevention program	182
Summary and Conclusions.....	183
THE PSYCHOLOGY OF SCRUMMAGING.....	186
“The psychology of competition”	186
‘The need for aggression to be expressed’	187

'The psychology of scrummaging'	189
A model of scrum performance	190
All together now–Part 1	191
All together now–Part 2	193
Building a cohesive scrum	194
Team environment.....	196
Team processes.....	196
Conformity to team norms	197
Building a confident scrum	197
Conclusion.....	204
THE REFEREE AND THE LAW	208
Referees: the enablers	210
References and citations	212
OUR EXPERT COLLABORATORS.....	216
Introducing our expert collaborators.....	217
Sir Wilson James Whineray, KNZM, OBE	217
Sir Nicholas Shehadie, AC, OBE.....	218
Sir Brian James Lochore, ONZ, KNZM, OBE.....	218
Al Baxter	219
Dick Byres	221
Mike Cron.....	223
Kevin J. Crowe, OAM.....	225
Colin Deans, OAM	229
Andrew T. (Andy) Hopper.....	231
Gaven Head	233
Peter Horton	239
Jake Howard	241
Philip Keith-Roach	242
Malcolm Lewis.....	244
Andy McIntyre	246
Ray McLoughlin	248
Philip Orr	248
Emilio Cesar Perasso	249
Heinrich Rodgers.....	251

Peter Sloane	253
Pieter De Villiers	254
Cobus Visagie	255
Jon White	258
THE ENGAGEMENT SEQUENCE	262
Recommended risk reduction and time-saving solution.....	265
Four-step engagement sequence	266
Newly proposed two-step engagement sequence	267
My sixteen-step solution explained	269
TOPO'S MISCELLANEOUS COMMENTS	278
The degeneration of scrummaging since 2005	278
Metaphorically speaking	279
Captains and their decision-making ability	280
Scrum are hurting rugby	281
Rugby referees' verbals: to be or not to be (08/02/2014)	284
Yes nine (9), put it in now scrum call to be axed by irb 07/01/2014.....	284
"Referees determined to revive the scrum"	294
My solutions.....	300
THE SCRUM LAW OVERHAUL.....	304
A truly Solomonic solution is needed here	304
The art of prevention without stopping the show	304
"THE BREAKDOWN" a publication by theguardian.com on 04/04/2015	305
Bring the rugby law into the 21st century	308
A big proviso	310
Only one command from the referee is needed for the proper execution and completion of a scrum	311
THE RUGBY SCRUM AND THE REFEREEING.....	318
BBC5 RADIO INTERVIEW – "The Scrum" program.....	334
14th May 2013	338
Jeff Probyn's column in The Rugby Paper, UK.....	338
BBC5 radio program—The Scrum, 28/03/2013	341

TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS..... 348

A reminder to the Scrum Steering Group [SSG/IRB] – March/April 2013.....348

The Bath University scrum measurements research project (2011)349

NZ'S Accident Compensation Corporation (ACC) to play key role in trial of new rugby scrum law350

Scrum Experts Lobby (SEL)..... 351

Recommendations and suggestions submitted to the Scrum Steering Group
(SSG/IRB).....354

Reply from the SSG (IRB)359

STOP PRESS368

My silver bullets for an ailing scrum368

 Introduction.....368

 Origins368

 Introduction.....369

 Rugby doesn't need to be too complicated.....370

 Some explanations370

 Tenets371

 Conclusion and closing.....374

Credits.....376

