

8	Stages of an Amazing Triumph
10	The Pilgrimage to St. Wolfgang's Sacred Site
11	Saline Baths and Salt Princes
17	The Most Beautiful View in the Alps
23	The New Age of Mountain Railway
32	St. Gilgen – The "Mozart Village"
33	The "Ischl Railway" had the Emperor's Blessing
37	Lake Wolfgang Impressed even Humboldt
47	Holidays for Wealthy Summer Visitors
54	Austria's Largest River Delta
55	Legendary Dangers of the Water

Imprint:

First English Edition © 2010; ISBN: 978-3-902692-15-3

Owner and Producer: Colorama Verlagsgesellschaft mbH, Vogelweiderstraße 116, 5020 Salzburg, Tel. +43 (0) 662 840899-0, www.colorama.at

Photo credits:

Wolfgangsee Tourismus Gesellschaft: 2/3, 7, 46, 62/63, Back cover; Schafberg-Bahn&WolfgangseeSchiffahrt: 6, 23, 24, 25, 30 below, 31, 56; Salzburg Museum: 11; Kunsthistorisches Museum Wien: 13 above; Österreichische Nationalbibliothek: 13 below; Landesarchiv Salzburg: 17, 33; Archiv Sungler: 40; Wolfgang Weinhäupl: 44, small cover photos; Hutter: All other photos.

Author:

Clemens M. Hutter, dr. phil. (philosophy, political science, ethnology), is journalist and author of 45 books focusing on history chronicles, economic and social history of the Eastern Alps, and Alpinism.

Thanks:

For supporting the research of this publication, the author and the publisher wish to thank: Landesarchiv Salzburg, Josef Limbacher, Gunter Mackinger, Hans Wieser, Monika Eisl, Gerlinde Grundler, Alexandra Scharzenberger, Dagmar Tarmann; and with special thanks to Adele Sungler, who made her extensive archives accessible.

Translator: Melanie Serpa