

American Foundations in Europe

Grant-Giving Policies, Cultural Diplomacy and Trans-Atlantic Relations, 1920–1980

Giuliana Gemelli & Roy MacLeod (eds.)

P.L.E.-Peter Lang

EUROCLIO
STUDIES AND DOCUMENTS

Contents

Preface	9
Acknowledgements	11
Introduction	15
Giuliana Gemelli and Roy MacLeod

PART I. BILATERAL RELATIONS

‘The Power of Dichotomies’: The Rockefeller Foundation’s Division of Medical Education, Medical Literature, and Russia, 1921–1925	31
Susan Gross Solomon

National Policies and International Philanthropy: The Rockefeller Foundation and Polish and Hungarian Science between the World Wars	53
Aleksandra Witczak Haugstad and Erik Ingebrigtsen

American Foundations in Modern Turkey: The Rockefeller and Ford Foundations	73
Kenneth W. Rose

The Ford Foundation and the Centre for Environmental Studies, 1966–1978	95
Mark Clapson

PART II. TRANS-NATIONAL NETWORKS

Ulysses of Chicago: American Foundations and Public Administration, 1900–1960	115
Pierre-Yves Saunier

Mass Communications and the Foundations: Rockefeller, Ford, and the Role of Radio, 1935–1964	129
Ludovic Tournès

Networks of Patronage: American Foundations and the Origins of the Salzburg Seminar 145
Oliver Schmidt

PART III. INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTIONS AND ORGANIZATIONS

Modernizing Eugenics: The Role of Foundations in International Population Studies 167
Paul Weindling

The Unexpected Effects of Institutional Fluidity:
The Ford Foundation and the Shaping of the Johns Hopkins University Bologna Center 181
Giuliana Gemelli and Thomas Row

Bibliography 199
Notes on Contributors 215
Index 219