

About the authors

Dr. Alexei Medvedev

Dr. Alexei Medvedev has been working as programme director for KWB e. V. since 2007. His area of concentration is intercultural work with parents at school-to-work transition. He spearheads projects for intercultural cooperation with parents and school development. He is the author of various publications and has held lectures at numerous national and international conferences on the topics of integration, education, and family. Dr. Alexei Medvedev studied German philology, tourism, and education management in Perm, Münster, and Zagreb. He received his doctorate in Nizhny Novgorod (Russia) with his dissertation in literary studies.

Elisabeth Wazinski

Elisabeth Wazinski has been working as a senior project manager for KWB e. V. since 2008. Her areas of concentration include intercultural recruitment processes, intercultural work with parents, intercultural training, and educational placement for young immigrants. Moreover, she has been working as a therapist and coach since 2007 which is an expertise that not only works well with counselling youths, but also in supervising and advising those involved with education. Elisabeth Wazinski has a Master of Arts in Ethnology (M. A.).