Foreword .....	3
About the authors .....	4
1 Compulsory school attendance means: ALL children must attend school in Germany. ....	6
2 ALL parents can help their children before they start school and while they are going to school. ....	10
3 It is simply not enough to find a good school. It is also the responsibility of parents to educate their children. ....	14
4 Even experts have a hard time making our school system easy to understand. ...	18
5 Both disabled and non-disabled children can learn together. ....	22
6 Any language your child speaks is a jewel! ....	26
7 There is a middle ground between silence and grumbling: Talk to your child's teacher. ....	30
8 Parents can do more than just sell cakes! ....	34
9 Parents have many rights. ....	38
10 Parents also have obligations. ....	42
11 Report cards and marks are like traffic lights: You must take their signals seriously. ....	46
12 It is not only about marks ....	50
13 Integrated career and vocational education and training (duale Ausbildung), university, or a work-study degree programme (duales Studium)? They are all equally good! Let your child decide. ....	54
14 Made in Germany: The whole world envies us because of our integrated system of career and vocational education and training (duale Ausbildung). ...	58
15 My child will go to university. ....	62
16 There are more options after secondary school than some parents think. ...	66
17 Every child has strengths and weaknesses. ....	70
18 In this world, parents are simply irreplaceable, especially when it comes to choosing a profession. ....	74
19 ALL parents can help their child with applications. ....	78
20 Today the application process is almost like an audition! ....	82
