

LISTENING II – Hörtext: A new girl

---

Erzähler: It's the first day after the holidays and there's a new girl at school: Kim. She's from Birmingham.

Kim: Hi, I'm Kim. I'm new here. Where's my classroom?

Lisa: Hi, welcome to our school. Our classroom is there. Come with me.

Kim: Thanks for your help. What's your name?

Lisa: No problem. My name is Lisa.

Kim: Lisa ... that's a nice name. How old are you?

Lisa: I'm eleven years old. What about you?

Kim: I'm eleven years old too. Where do you live?

Lisa: We live in a pretty house in Birdhurst Road and we have a big garden.

Kim: Have you got a nice family, Lisa?

Lisa: Well ... I've got a brother: Charly. Charly is eight years old and he's a little silly! My parents are nice. Their names are Michelle and Bill. We've got a hamster and its name is Donald. Donald is a crazy hamster and he lives in the kitchen.

Kim: Oh wow! I love hamsters.

Lisa: What about you? Where are you from?

Kim: I'm from Birmingham and I live in Park Road. I live in a flat with my mum and my parrot Katy. Parrots are OK but I love horses.

Lisa: Oh really? I love horses too. My hobby is horse riding. You're a nice girl. Sit with me, Kim.

Kim: That's a good idea.

Lisa: Oh, it's 8 o'clock. Take out your English book. The lesson begins.

Kim: What's the name of our English teacher?

Lisa: That's Mr. Marty.

Kim: Is he OK?

Lisa: Yes, he's nice. He's our music teacher, too.

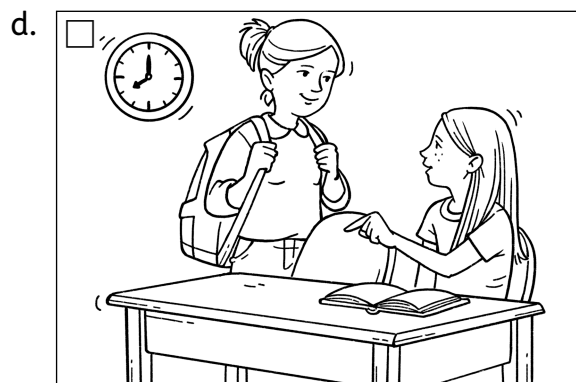

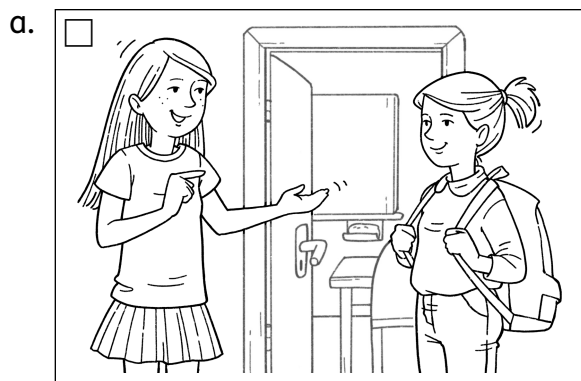

Kim: That's super. I like music very much.
