

Shmuel Barzilai

Chassidic Ecstasy in Music

PETER LANG
Internationaler Verlag der Wissenschaften

Acknowledgments

I wish to warmly thank all those who assisted me in writing this book, whether by providing me with information, critical remarks or helpful suggestions. In particular, I would like to thank the following:

The teaching staff in the Department of Jewish Studies at Vienna University: specifically, Prof. Kurt Schubert, z”l; Prof. Klaus Davidowicz and Prof. Gunther Stemberger for their help and guidance from the outset of my studies at the Faculty.

Mr. Yakov Mazor, Prof. Eliahu Schleiffer and Dr. Gila Flam from the Institute of Musicology; the Music Department of the Hebrew University, Jerusalem.

The Jewish National and University Library; for their help, information, good suggestions, and permission to use and photocopy the records of A. Z. Idelsohn and M. S. Geshuri.

My mentor and friend, Rabbi Chaim Eisenberg, the Chief Rabbi of Austria, for his help from the moment I arrived in Vienna, and for suggestions that led to the writing of this book.

The author and journalist Mr. Saul Meizlish; the Chabad Vienna representative Rabbi Aharon Catorza; author and journalist, Mr. Israel Katzover; the son and heir of the Kosson Admor, Rabbi Yeshaya Meshulam Faish Halevi Rottenberg; and Prof. Eliyahu Schleiffer, all of whom gave of their unique and fascinating ideas and improvements.

The photographer, Shuki Lerer, for allowing me access to photographs of the great Chassidic leaders (Admorim) playing violins during the lighting of Chanuka candles.

My father, Rabbi Moshe Zvi Shlomo Barzilai, for his encouragement and support. My dear brother, Rav Mordechai Barzilai, for assistance in collecting pictorial material, receiving approbation from the Modzitz Rabbi, and so much more.

My dear and wonderful wife, Dvori, and my beloved children, Yair, Chaya and her husband Chaim, Efrat, and Daniela, whose encouragement supported me throughout.

In compiling a list of names and places where Rabbis appearing in this book served, together with their dates of birth and passing away, I was greatly assisted by Mr. Zvi Rabinowicz's book The Encyclopedia of Chassidism. Dates of birth and death of cantors appearing in this book were taken from Mr. Akiva Zimmerman's B'ron Yachad.