

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
THOMAS DAY
Foreword	I
ECKHARD JASCHINSKI
The Renewal of Catholic Church Music in Germany/Austria, France and Italy in the Nineteenth Century	13
PAUL COLLINS
Emissaries to 'a believing and a singing land': Belgian and German Organists in Ireland, 1859–1916	29
KIERAN ANTHONY DALY
The Dublin Eucharistic Congress: Tra le sollecitudini in the Phoenix Park	53
HELEN PHELAN
Ireland, Music and the Modern Liturgical Movement	73
BENNETT ZON
Victorian Anti-Semitism and the Origin of Gregorian Chant	99
THOMAS E. MUIR
Catholic Church Music in England: The 1950s	121

KEITH F. PECKLERS, S.J.
The Evolution of Liturgical Music in the United States of America, 1850–1962	151
ANN L. SILVERBERG
Cecilian Reform in Baltimore, 1868–1903	171
ROBERT A. SKERIS
Musica sacra in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, 1858–1958	189
SUSAN TREACY
A Chronicle of Attitudes towards Gregorian Chant in Orate Fratres/Worship , 1926–1962	211
JOHN DE LUCA
Disputatur inter Doctores : A Disagreement between Two Australian Bishops on the Binding Nature of a Papal Motu Proprio	237
JOHN HENRY BYRNE
Archbishop Daniel Mannix and Church Music in Melbourne, 1913–1963	251
Notes on Contributors	271
Index	277