

LOYOLA'S GREATER NARRATIVE

The Architecture of the Spiritual Families in Golden Age and Enlightenment Literature

FREDRIC CONROD

Contents

Figures	vii
Foreword	ix
Chapter I: Baroque Orders of Corruption	1
Chapter II: The Spiritual Exercises , or the Formation of Mental Territories and Orders of Corruption.....	15
Totalitarian Structures and Orders of Corruption.....	17
The Formation of an Image Reservoir.....	27
Imitatio Christi and Baroque Inversions	43
Chapter III: “Ego Vobis Romae Propitius Ero”: Diffusion of the Spiritual Exercises in Rome (1550–1650)	54
The First Mission of a New Apostle.....	54
An Image Reservoir in the Multiple-Layer Urban Fabric.....	61
Corresponding Dynamics?	67
Roman Churches after the Spiritual Exercises	73
The Mother Church of Il Gesù and Sant’Andrea Al Quirinale.....	77
The Roma Ignaziana	88

Chapter IV: Transformation of the Visual Dynamics of the Spiritual

Exercises in the Late Works of Miguel de Cervantes	94
Cervantes, Corruption, the Urban, and the Company.....	97
Don Quixote, an Excessive Projection in a Greater Narrative.....	104
The Last Pilgrimage: Cervantes' Representation of Rome in Los Trabajos de Persiles y Sigismunda	121
Conclusion.....	131

Chapter V: Transforming the Orders of Corruption

in El Criticón: The Case of Baltasar Gracián, a Jesuit

Preparing the Way for the Enlightenment	133
Pre-Enlightenment Coming Out of the Exercises ?	133
The Exercise of Decoding Monstrosity.....	143
Contemplating Eternal Arts beyond the Roma Ignaziana	151
The Enigmatic Parallel Writing of El Comulgatorio	161
Conclusion.....	164

Chapter VI: From Loyolan Imagination to Sadean

Enlightenment: Parodistic Inversions of the Spiritual

Exercises in the Novels of the Marquis de Sade	168
Philosophical Criticism of the Loyolan System in Early Enlightenment France, from Descartes to Voltaire.....	168
Sadean Inversions of the Spiritual Exercises	184
Collecting the Tableaux in the Cent Vingt Journées	189
Melting Down the Concept of Spiritual Direction.....	193
Forcing the Exercitant to Desire the Opposite.....	195
Revisiting the Roma Ignaziana in Juliette	199
Conclusion.....	206

Afterword	209
Notes	215
Works Cited	245
Index	251