

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction (Hongyu Wang)	xi
Part I: Autobiography and Social Difference
1. Two Perspectives on Race and Gender (Ben Mortensen)	3
2. Power and Privilege (Juliana Utley and Betsy Showalter)	11
3. Lessons in an Unspoken Language (Sue Rankin)	19
4. Opening Up Intellectual and Emotional Gates (Yan Yang)	25
5. Invisible Boundaries, Soul-Awakening Moments (Sylvia Muse)	29
6. My Son Is a Gay: A Mother's Story (Miriam Ward)	37
Pedagogical Reflection I: Teaching Multicultural Education through Autobiographies (Hongyu Wang)	43
Part II: What Happened in My Backyard?
7. The Tulsa Race Riot of 1921: An Account (Bonita S. Johnson and Steve Hahn)	51
8. Behind the Rowland Incident: What Was the Real Motive? (Felly Chiteng Kot)	57
9. Stopping "Willful Amnesia" (Julie K. Nethon)	63
10. Studying the Tulsa Race Riot for Social Renewal (David Chadwick)	67

11. Learning Together: An Instructor's and Pre-Service Teachers' Journey to Understanding a City's Past (Elizabeth Elias) 71

Pedagogical Reflection II: Historical Memory and Pedagogical Encounter (Hongyu Wang) 79

Part III: Reclaiming Roots

12. Growing Up Native American in a White Society: My Educational Journey (Deidre Prevett) 87

13. Embracing One's Own Culture and Respecting Differences (Shanedra Nowell) 93

14. Reclaiming My Own Heritage (Julie Macomb) 99

Pedagogical Reflection III: Reclaiming Roots (Nadine Olson) 103

Part IV: Global Perspectives

15. Out of Place: Teaching Arabic as a Foreign Language in the U.S. (Azza Ahmad) 109

16. Conversation and Globalization: An International Student Advisor's Intercultural Path (Jon Smythe) 117

17. Cultivating Global Consciousness: An Educator's Journey (Annie Marie Malloy) 125

Pedagogical Reflection IV: Connecting Global Perspectives with Personhood (Nadine Olson) 133

Part V: Do I Have a Culture? Understanding Whiteness

18. The Color of Fear, the Change in David, and Racial Identity (Tracey Roberson and Stephani Allen-Brown) 141

19. My White Identity: A Self-Awareness Revelation (Kerri Bury) 149

20. A Personal Journey from Colorblindness to Anti-Racism (Melanie Burgess)	155
21. Seeing Others, Seeing Myself (Sean Kinder)	159
22. The Chicago Experience: Transforming Identity (Brian Payne)	163
23. Beyond Silence and Denial: Overcoming Institutional Racism in the Schools (Kristen Nelson)	167
Pedagogical Reflection V: Self-Understanding and Engaging Others (Hongyu Wang)	173

Part VI: Perspectives, Visions, and Praxis

24. Uncovering Racism: Giving Voices to Uncomfortable Truths (Anita Ede)	181
25. An Examined Life: The Journey of Becoming a Multicultural Educator (Sandra L. Bequette)	187
26. The Glass Closet: Silencing Classroom Dialogue (Lauren Skvarla)	191
27. Educating Young Adults through Social Justice Literature (Tiffany Ballard)	199
28. Culture and the Literary Canon (Martin Meadows)	205
References	213