
Contents

Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xv
Chapter 1: Journey of Leadership	1
Leadership—The Context: In the Beginning	1
Leadership Defined	2
Seminal Studies of Leadership.....	10
Gender, Race, and Leadership	17
Black Women and the Path to Leadership: A Historical Perspective	21
Black Women Leader Activists’ Herstories: An Introduction ..	29
Points to Consider	30
Suggested Readings	31
Video Resources	37
References	38
Chapter 2: Critical Servant Leadership: The Gift of Leadership and the Burden of Sacrifice	51
Black Women Leaders in the Civil Rights Movement: Invisible, Yet Indispensable	52
Critical Servant Leadership: A Spirited Resistance Defined..	55
Servant Leadership Defined.....	55
Servant Leadership Critiqued.....	57
Servant Leadership Expanded.....	58
Herstory—Fannie Lou Hamer: The Conscience of the Civil Rights Movement	60
Disappointed but Not Deterred	60

“I am sick and tired of being sick and tired”: Injustice No More	63
Spiritual Resilience: Faith Is My Shield.....	65
Political Enfranchisement: Personal Memory and Heartfelt Pain.....	67
Herstory–Septima Poinsette Clark: Liberating Minds through Literacy	71
Education: A Key to Political Liberation	72
“My first radical job”: Challenging the Status Quo.....	74
“Through the fire and the flood”: Citizenship and Voter Education.....	75
“Those men didn’t have any faith in women”: Race and Gender	78
Leadership Praxis	81
Points to Consider.....	82
Suggested Readings	82
Video Resources	84
References	85
 Chapter 3: Transformational Leadership: A Legacy of Faith and Service	93
Transformational Leadership Defined	94
The Four I’s of Transformational Leadership	96
Transformational Leadership and Black Women Leaders	97
Herstory–Mary McLeod Bethune: Five Dollars, Faith, and a Fervent Vision.....	98
Foundation and Motivation	101
Public Intellectual and Womanist Traditions	104
Transformational Leadership Praxis.....	107
The Bethune Legacy	109
Herstory–Shirley Chisholm: An Unbought and Unbossed Catalyst for Change	111
Ordinary Yet Charismatic Grace: Idealized Influence	112
Yes We Can: Inspirational Motivation	114
“I breath fire”: Intellectual Stimulation	116
The Good Fight: Individualized Consideration	117
“Veni, vidi, vici”: Fulfilling the Leadership Challenge.....	121

Points to Consider	122
Suggested Readings	124
Video Resources	127
References	128
Chapter 4: Tempered Radicalism and Social Justice:
A Likely Duo	135
Feminism and Leadership	136
Black Feminist Thought	137
Intersectionality	138
Tempered Radicalism	139
This Context and This Truth	142
Herstory–Audre Lorde: “Warrior Radical Fighting for Justice”	142
An Outsider with an Inside View	143
Talking Back and Talking “Out”	145
Herstory–Barbara Jordan: The Voice of Justice and the Conscience of a Nation	150
The Voice: An Ethic of Responsibility	152
The Life: An Ethic of Care and Justice	155
A Spectacle of Greatness	158
Points to Consider	159
Suggested Readings	160
Video Resources	164
References	165
Chapter 5: Lessons for the 21 st Century Leadership: Six Voices Speak
The Voice of Mary McLeod Bethune (1875-1955)	173
On Leadership	173
On Social Justice	174
On Education	174
On Faith & Service	175
The Voice of Septima Poinsette Clark (1898-1987)	175
On Leadership	175
On Social Justice	176
On Education	176
On Faith & Service	177

The Voice of Fannie Lou Hamer (1917-1977).....	178
On Leadership.....	178
On Social Justice.....	178
On Education.....	179
On Faith & Service	180
The Voice of Shirley Chisholm (1924-2005).....	180
On Leadership.....	180
On Social Justice.....	180
On Education.....	182
On Faith & Service	182
The Voice of Audre Lorde (1934-1992).....	182
On Leadership.....	182
On Social Justice.....	183
On Education.....	184
On Faith & Service	184
The Voice of Barbara Jordan (1936-1996)	185
On Leadership.....	185
On Social Justice.....	186
On Education.....	186
On Faith & Service	187
Points to Consider.....	187
Suggested Readings	188
Video Resources	191
References	192
Afterword.....	197
Index	199