

MEANINGS AT THE TEXT LEVEL: A CO-EVOLUTIONARY APPROACH

T. Nyan

Contents

Preface	9
Acknowledgements	11
 Introduction	 13
Deacon's co-evolutionary approach	15
Viewing meaning from a co-evolutionary perspective	20
Text level, communicative situations, and language evolution	20
Problems and underlying means	26
 Chapter 1
Illocutionary acts and divergent thinking	29
Direct illocutionary acts with a declarative structure	36
 Chapter 2
SN conditions and the internalization of environmental constraints	59
 Chapter 3
Argumentational meaning	89
The knowledge source problem and decision making	95
The interpretative problem: argumentation, categorization and divergent thinking	112
 Chapter 4
Methodological issues	155
Edelman's theory of neuronal group selection	166
Meanings from the perspective of the TNGS	176
 Bibliography	 179
Index	185